Rocky, Wagner Act To Halt Job Bias

NEW YORK (AP)—Gov. Rockefeller and Mayor Robert F. Wagner have taken separate steps aimed at ending racial discrimination in jobs in the construction industry.

Each warns that if discrimination is found in a public construction project under his jurisdiction the contract will be canceled.

The Republican governor and Democratic mayor announced their moves as demonstrations continued in the campaign for more jobs for Negroes and Puerto Ricans in construction work.

Part of Rockefeller's program was establishment of a three-man board "to supervise the policing" of contractors and unions to make sure they do not discriminate. The governor also announced that the State Commission for Human Rights will take the initiative in investigating charges of discrimination by contractors and unions on state construction projects. Civil rights groups have complained because the commission waited for complaints to be filed before taking action.

Wagner said he will direct the City Commission on Human Rights to give preference to all complaints of discrimination by building trades unions. He said the commission's investigations will determine whether the city will cancel contracts. Wagner also urged the unions to take immediate action to open their ranks to more Negroes and Puerto Ricans.

Spokesmen for the construction trades unions and the contractors have denied repeatedly that they practice discrimination.

Fail to Budge Sit-ins

The moves by the governor and mayor — announced separately Thursday — failed to satisfy the groups holding around-the-clock sit-ins at Rockefeller's Manhattan office and Wagner's City Hall office.

A spokesman said they would fast from 6 p.m. today until at least 6 p.m. Sunday. He didn't say why the demonstrators are still dissatisfied.

In another racial development thirty Democratic New York City members of the state Legislature joined with a committee of civil rights organizations in an appeal to Rockefeller to call a special session of the Legislature to enact laws to force equal employment opportunities in the building trades. The governor said later he feels the state already has all the laws needed to handle the situation.

Rockefeller, in announcing the investigations to be conducted by the State Commission for Human Rights, said the procedure will provide "for a more effective enforcement of the state's laws and contractural provisions prohibiting discrimination in employment at state construction projects and in the supply of services, materials, equipment and suppplies under state contracts."

Others to Probe

The board that Rockefeller appointed to "supervise the policing" of contractors and unions is composed of Atty. Gen. Louis J. Lefkowitz, State Industrial Commissioner Martin P. Catherwood and George H. Fowler, Negro chairman of the State Commission for Human Rights.

Rockefeller said additional per-

Curfew Is Restored In Syria

Could Mean New Trouble Brewing

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — More trouble appeared to be brewing in Syria today. The Ba'ath Socialist government lifted the nationwide curfew imposed after an attempted pro-Nasser coup Thursday, then clamped it on again without explanation.

Will Shoot Violators

Damascus Radio broadcast the new curfew order, warning that violators would be shot.

At the same time telephone lines between Beirut and Damascus were cut again. They had reopened this morning. Syria's border's remained sealed and planes were not allowed to discharge passengers at the Damascus airport.

Maj. Gen. Amin Hafez, Ba'Athist strongman of the Syrian army issued a statement reminding that martial law is still in force and that demonstrations and the carrying of arms were banned. He warned that offenders would be jailed for as long as three years.

Ex-Nasser Aid in Syria

The Syrian National Revolutionary Command, which has run the country since the Ba'Athist coup last March 8, accused "groups and individuals, both inside and outside the country" of plotting Thursday's attempt to overthrow the government.

It did not pin the blame specifically on supporters of President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic. But a Damascus Radio commentary mentioned Nasser's former top aide in Syria, Abdel Hamid Serraj, as a plotter.

Port Youth Loses Life in Mishap

PORT JERVIS, N.Y. (AP)—Richard T. Mitchko, 17, of Port Jervis, was injured fatally Thursday night when a car in which he was riding went offf Route 6 near here, hit a boulder and overturned.

The driver, Steven R. Duke, 18, of Port Jervis, was taken to St. Francis Hospital with back injuries. He was reported in good condition.

Storm Curtails Power, Causes Freak Span Crash; Bolt Kills Cows

Strong gusts of wind and lightning that swept over this area Thursday afternoon, combined to play havoc with electric service in several parts of the county, overturned a house-trailer on the Kingston-Rhinecliff bridge, and killed seven dairy cows on a New Paltz farm.

2,000 Without Power

An official of the Central Hudson Gas and Electric Corp., reported approximately 2,000 customers in sections of the county were without power for some time due to the weather conditions.

Four persons were injured when a gust of wind overturned a house-trailer on a sports car on the Kingston - Rhinecliff Bridge.

A bolt of lightning struck a tree on the Smiley Brothers farm at New Paltz, and killed seven of a herd of cattle that sought shelter from the heavy rain.

Trees Uprooted

Many trees were uprooted and large limbs were snapped from trees an fell to the streets and sidewalks as the brief windstorm swept through the area.

Gusts of wind ranging from 30 to 35 miles an hour were reported in some parts of the Rondout Valley.

Emergency crews of the Central Hudson were dispatched to Ulster County areas from Catskill and Poughkeepsie to assist in restoring electric service.

Several chimneys were reported damaged in the Creek Locks area during the storm that lasted approximately 15 to 20 minutes.

Approximately 2,000 customers in the Kyserike, High Falls, St. Remy, Rosendale, Stone Ridge and Port Ewen areas were with-

Rain Welcomed, More Is Needed To Avoid Drought

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Wilting corps in New York State perked up slightly today with a taste of moisture in their roots, but they demanded more.

The wish might be fulfilled. The Weather Bureau sees thundershowers today and tomorrow in most of the state.

Rain showered nearly all of the state Thursday, but the amount was not sufficient for any deep soaking, which is what is needed by the farmers.

Need It Soon

The lack of substantial rain this year has brought expressions of concern that the state might be in for a repetition of last summer's damaging drought.

"We do not have drought conditions yet," an official of the State Agriculture Department said Thursday while the sun was still shining. "But there's no question that many farmers want rain and need rain—and need it soon."

A sprinkle came a few hours later.

The dry weather has affected

Abandoned Baby's Identity Sought

State Police BCI investigators today were endeavoring to learn the identity of a new born baby boy found Thursday abandoned in a field on an East Fishkill farm. The infant was taken to Highland Hospital, Beacon, where the child was reported in good health.

Albert G. Wnuk, hospital administrator, said the baby probably was born a few hours before being found by a farmer in a field at Hortontown and Miller Roads, Town of East Fishkill.

Wnuk reportedly said, "From what we can determine at this time the baby is in good health and he is a normal child. He is definitely less than a day old and I would say he might have been born just five hours or so before being found."

Marlboro Phone Tap Is Probed

An illegal wiretap discovered on June 24, in the Marlboro Central School building, will be investigated by Ulster County Grand Jury, District Attorney David W. Corwin disclosed today.

The matter will be submitted to the grand jury "in the near future", following the filing of a formal complaint by the New York Telephone Company. John Esposito of the Intra-State Investigation Service was called in by the school authorities after it was found an unlisted telephone line in the office and home of Supervising Principal Paul Georgini had been tapped.

Under Eavesdropping Law

The matter will be taken up by the grand jury under the "eavesdropper" section of the Penal Law.

The illegal tap was connected to the unlisted school telephone located in the office of the supervising principal and also to the extension of the same unlisted number which is located in Georgini's residence on North Young Avenue, Marlboro.

There has been turmoil in the district over the two-session school program.

The telephone unit over which Georgini's conversations were monitored, was a demonstration type, dial-less instrument formerly used at the school for instructional purposes and was located on top of a steel tool cabinet in the Industrial Arts classroom, also known as the shop room, in the basement of the school building.

An illegal wiretap is a violation of the United States Criminal Code and is also a felony under the New York Penal Law.

Lipton Denied Bee Line Sale

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—The Public Service Commission refused today to permit Julius Lipton of Kingston to sell his bus line to Empire Bus Lines Inc. of Poughkeepsie.

The commission said Empire wanted Lipton's firm, not to continue to operate the line, but to acquire rights to enter the charter business in the Kingston-Saugerties area.

The commission held that new competition for charter business would seriously threaten the existing bus lines serving the area. No need for an additional charter operator was shown, the PSC said.

The commission split 4-2 in refusing the sale.

Cambridge Facing New Race Troubles

CAMBRIDGE, Md. (AP) — The threat of renewed demonstrations hung over this city today as a state-proposed mediating committee delayed stepping into the racial dispute.

Negroes called off further demonstations Thursday when State Atty. Gen. Thomas B. Finan said the racial relations committee of the Maryland Bar Association would try to find a common ground for agreement.

Due By Saturday

Finan said the lawyers' group would come to Cambridge by Saturday at the latest.

However, William McWilliams, chairman of the committee, said he had not been contacted by either Finan or the governor's office about the committee's role before he read about it in the newspaper Thursday morning.

McWilliams, an Anne Arundel County lawyer and former judge, said his group would meet Wednesday in Baltimore to decide whether or not it would enter the Cambridge picture.

Finan bemoaned the misunderstanding saying:

"I had been contacted by the president of the bar association about the existence of such a committee and that they could help in racial matters and they would be glad to do so," Finan said.

Stanley Branche, field secretary of the NAACP from Chester, Pa., and leader in the Cambridge integration movement, declined to comment until he talked with McWilliams who was out of town Thursday night.

Governor Talks Tonight

Gov. J. Millard Tawes announced he will address the people of Maryland tonight over radio and television on the racial problems confronting the state.

There were indications that the governor would discuss the feasibility of having the National Guard stationed in Cambridge federalized. Guard troops have been keeping an uneasy truce since July 12 after six persons were wounded during a night of racial violence.

Tawes has estimated that the state must spend $25,000 a week to maintain these troops. Should the guard be federalized, the national government would take over the guard's operating ex-

Board Screens 3 New Applicants For Soper's Post

Members of the Kingston Board of Education at a special session Thursday night, screened the applications of three candidates seeking appointment to the position of superintendent of schools in the Kingston Consolidated District.

The Board at a meeting Tuesday night, reviewed the applications of four other candidates.

Going to Home Towns

David Kline, board president, said today the home towns of the seven applicants will be visited by a committee of board members next week to obtain additional information and background of the applicants.

One of the seven applicants will be invited to come to Kingston soon, for personal interview by the board and a committee of consultants headed by Dr. William Hageny.

A decision and appointment of a successor to Dr. Earl F. Soper is considered possible before Aug. 1. A school official previously said an appointment might be made on or before July 25.

34 In at Start

Thirty-four applications were originally received by the committee of consultants, and that number was subsequently reduced by elimination of many of the candidates seeking the post.

The applicants are school district officials in the state of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Michigan, and California.

The identity of the applicants has not been disclosed.

Favors End Of Every Type Test

E-W Nonagression Treaty Again Aim

MOSCOW (AP) — Premier Khrushchev expressed optimism today about the chances for a Big Three agreement in current negotiations on a limited nuclear test ban and said he would like to see outlawing of all such tests, including those underground.

The Soviet leader reiterated in a Kremlin speech that he wanted an East-West nonaggression pact.

He did not insist that it be tied to the treaty being negotiated here to forbid nuclear test blasts in the air, outer space and under water.

May Follow JFK Idea

This would seem to indicate that Khrushchev might be receptive to a countersuggestion made by President Kennedy through his special envoy, W. Averell Harriman, that the issue be handled through nonagression declarations.

At the same time, Khrushchev again announced he was ready to permit Western inspection of vital military installations inside the Soviet Union as safeguard against concentrations for a surprise attack.

This was offered as a device for helping to ease world tensions and was not directly connected wih the test ban treaty.

Speaking of the U.S., British and Russian test ban talks in Moscow, Khrushchev said:

"We are under the impression that there is hope now of achieving agreement on the banning of nuclear tests in the atmosphere, cosmic space and under water if, of course, there are no special changes in the positions of the American and British representatives.

Points to Aspirations

"We would like to achieve such an agreement that would include the banning of all tests, including underground tests as well.

"It has been demonstrated by science and techniques that the banning of all tests, including underground ones, can be controlled with the help of national technical means of detection which are at the disposal of nations now. But the representatives of the United States and England still insist on the necessity of international inspection. They do not want to give up their aspirations which, in reality, have nothing to do with the cessation of nuclear tests.

"Why and what for is this being done? In order to have the chance to carry out intelligence work."

Sees Vital Step

"The picture is quite clear: agreement on the ban of underground nuclear tests at the present time. Nevertheless, the Soviet government considers that if an agreement is achieved on a ban of nuclear tests in the atmosphere, cosmic space and under water, there will be an important and useful step forward."

Caution Eclipse Watchers on Eyes

Nearly a dozen organizations, including several governmental agencies have issued warnings to the public on the safest way to view the eclipse of the sun which may be seen in this area Saturday at 3:42 p. m.

All warn that the retina of the eye can be incurably burned by infra-red sun rays filtering through a solar eclipse.

Most of the warnings reiterate what has been said by the National Society for the Prevention of Blindness: There is no safe way to look directly at the eclipse without risking incurable burns of the retina from infra-red rays of the sun.

Parents are cautioned to warn their children, who are not apt to read the published warnings about eclipse viewing.

State University scientists report the eclipse will be about 90 per cent complete in eastern and southeastern sections of the

Local Guard Excels During Camp Tests

(Photo on Page 12)

Lt. Co. Arthur H. Marx, commanding officer, 1st Battalion 156th Artillery was notified today by the 1st U. S. Army Evaluation Board at Camp Drum that all his units were rated "Excellent." "The home town team was rated best, during field training June 22 to July 6, of the five artillery battalions of the 27th Armored Division Artillery, NYARNG," Col. Marx said.

The ratings are based on unit performance in the following subjects:

Military Courtesy, Tactical Marches, Unit Food Service, Unit Supply, Tactical Bivouacs, Methods of Instructions, Operation and Maintenance of Equipment, Communications Training and Operations, Command Supervision and Planning of Training, and Effectiveness of Scheduled Training.

The battalion staff, directed and supervised by the Battalion Executive Officer, Major Frank Fabbie, Kingston, was rated the top staff of the five artillery battalions of the 27th Division.

Headquarters, Headquarters and Service Battery, Captain Richard D. Nace, Kingston, commanding, was rated the best HH&S Btry of the 27th. Battery A, oldest unit in the NYARNG, Captain Guy M. Gardner, New Paltz, commanding, was rated the best firing battery of the division artillery, with Battery B, commanded by Captain Alvin L. Avery, Olive Bridge, and Battery C, commanded by Captain John S. Volpe, Middletown, following in that order for firing batteries honors.

Lt. Col. Marx said "I am very proud of my battalion and I wish to give full credit for these fine accomplishments to all of the devoted officers and enlisted men of the Kingston and Middletown area that make up the home town team.

Major Fabbie also announced that "Openings are available in all units of the battalion, and prior service men are most welcome to join. The home town team is the team to join, the best artillerymen in the Hudson Valley," he said.

AFTERMATH OF GALE-LIKE WINDS—A strong gust of wind sweeping across the Kingston-Rhinecliff Bridge roadway Thursday afternoon overturned a house-trailer (above) crushing a 1961 sports car proceeding in the westbound lane. Four persons were injured in the mishap, and taken to Benedictine Hospital by Doctors Ambulance Service. Volunteers of Ulster Hose Company responded to the scene and aided in clearing the obstruction which held up bridge traffic for a considerable time. (Freeman photo)

E-J Chief Resigns Post After Failing to Halt Heavy Losses

ENDICOTT, N.Y. (AP) — "My job is to reverse the trend, and I will do so," said P. J. Casella upon taking over direction of the Endicott Johnson Corp. the nation's third largest manufacturer of shoes.

The trend was rising costs, shrinking sales, and no profits.

Casella resigned Thursday after a year and a half as chief executive officer and president. As the door closed behind him, the company issued a familiar financial statement—

The company suffered a net loss of $688,126, or $1.03 a share of common stock, in the first six months of the year. This compared with a profit of $254,034, or 14 cents a share, in the corresponding six months of the previous year—the first under Casella's leadership.

Prior to that, the company had been losing money since 1960.

Casella, who grew up in this city as the son of an immigrant tailor, mentioned only private and personal business reasons for his resignation. He said in a letter that he had been working 14 hours a day.

He had begun his career as a stock clerk in a department store.

To replace Casella, the board of directors elected Eli G. White, 45, who had been vice president in charge of manufacturing. He took the title of president and chief executive officer.

Felix M. Weisiger, vice president in charge of retail sales, was named senior vice president. O. Russell Kennedy, director of women's manufacturing, succeeded White as vice president in charge of manufacturing and also joined the board of directors.

All of the changes were effective immediately.

The company employs about 1,0700 persons in 27 plants, most of them in this south-central area of Upstate New York.

Until Casella became president, a member of the family of founder George F. Johnson always headed the company. Frank Johnson, a grandson of the founder, remains as chairman of the board of directors.

In 1961, a holding company—the Glen Alden Corp.—attempted to gain control of Endicott Johnson stock. Businessmen and employes rallied to preserve local control, fearing that outside control would mean eventual loss of the company to this area. Employes contributed part of their pension fund.

The company had been noted for its paternalism. The eight-hour-day was instituted in 1916 and the company was instrumental in the creation of parks, hospitals, libraries and recreation centers in the area.

Casella launched a reorganization, saying that many of the paternalistic practices had become a millstone "around the corporate neck."

DO YOU REMEMBER

By SOPHIE MILLER

I had two welcome visitors the other day. The Johnstons from Schenectady dropped in to say "Hello". They left Kingston some 57 years ago. I knew Mr. Johnston only through correspondence, and they stayed only a few minutes for they wanted to stop and talk to their relations and friends in passing through Kingston. Mr. Johnston receives my column, from Mr. Finley from Jersey, from whom I also receive items. I think they re-newed their friendship through this column and now write back and forth and to me. I am always glad to be a go-between for Kingstonians who have lost touch with childhood friends.

Mr. Johnston brought me an interesting item which shows "The Old D. & H. Coal Docks. View taken 30 years ago. This site, known as "The Island Dock," is now occupied by the Kingston Shipbuilding Corporation." Another picture is of the "Old Wilbur Bridge-West Shore R. R." Another is of the coal docks "In Winter's Garb—view taken in 1894" I think the Austin side-wheeler is there also. The other picture on this sheet is that of Steamer Mary Powell—"The Queen of the Hudson."

These pictures were a part of something, perhaps a book, and are "Compliments of John A. Fischer". They describe the Mary Powell at that time as having a length of some 288 feet; breadth of beam molder 34 feet; draft of water six feet; and gross tonnage 783.59. The hull of the vessel was built by Shipbuilder Michael Allison, Jersey City, in 1861 and she went in service in 1862. Her original length was 270 feet. The machinery was built by W. A. Fletcher Co. North River Iron Works."

It is said in this description that "The Powell's fastest time was in 1882 after she was rebuilt when she made a record of 25 miles in one hour and one minute. In July of 1893, she made the run from New York to West Point, a distance of 50 miles in 2 hours and 5 minutes. Her record time between New York and Rondout, her home, a distance of 100 miles, was 4 hours 12 minutes, making her eight landings. She left New York that day at 3:33 p. m. and arrived at Rondout at 7:45 p. m. She was sold in November, 1919, and has sailed her last voyage to the graveyard of faithful ships, the junk pile." The item sadly concluded.

Perhaps we should have had a Mary Powell Day in 1962. The world seems to remember her. She is written up in many books, and you cannot cover the history of the Hudson river without her. She was beautiful and she was fast, and her family of Captains, the Anderson family, were very special people who ran her, as though every day was a day for royalty. It is said, when royalty visited this country, they were taken aboard the Mary Powell for a sail up or down the Hudson and were always impressed.

Our youth knows very little about the Mary Powell, perhaps school children could become interested in her and that way also learn something about their own Hudson river. Drwings and models could be made of her. Why was she so swift, and so easy to handle. She was a handsome boat, and every boy would be interested to draw her if told something about her and shown good photographs, of which there are many. The Mary Powell whistle was known to all us children. It meant curfew, go home and stay home, unheard of in this modern world of progressive education.

BABSON on BUSINESS

By Roger W. Babson

BABSON PARK, Mass., July 19—Last fall in these pages I discussed the bargains available in foreign travel, and I pointed out that the cost of touring was still on the way down while the cost of practically everything else was on the way up. This trend still continues. The reason is, in large part, the bitter competition not only between the air lines and the shipping companies, but also among the various ambitious concerns within those two categories.

Many Buying Travel Bargains

Final figures for 1962 show that Americans shelled out close to $2.9 billion for foreign travel during that year, an impressive gain of 10 per cent after the temporary leveling off seen in 1961. Preliminary figures for the first part of 1963 indicate that the curiosity of Americans to visit foreign countries is still growing. The travel-now pay-later psychology is leading many lower-budget Americans — who would never have dreamed of traveling abroad a few years ago—to give themselves a royal treat "on the cuff."

Jet flights to faraway lands are so fast that nearly all of one's vacation can be spent in romantic climes new to the traveler, instead of on a slow boat getting there. Man-and-wife or entire-family bargain packages are very popular, with the cost often little more than that of a trip to some distant national park or seashore in this country. Visits to neighboring Canada and Mexico are steadily on the increase; but I am more interested at the moment in the tendency of Americans to go farther afield, to cross the open seas for new experiences.

Where People Are Going

The most popular parts of the world for travelers right now are the European and Mediterranean countries. During 1961 about 299,000 Americans visited these areas, while last year the total zoomed to 353,000. There was a somewhat advance from the 238,000 travelers who visited the West Indies and Central and South America during 1961 to the 2668,000 who toured there in 1962. Indications are that the same tendencies exist in 1963, and will for some time to come.

I am told by a friend who is interested in hotels, motels, and apartments in the West Indies that the Haitian trouble has done his business more good than harm. True, many people have moved away from the immediate area of Haiti and the Dominican Republic—also from the countries closest to Cuba. However, as a result, tourists have concentrated more heavily in other sections of the West Indies. Both the climate and the nearness of these islands make them particularly attractive to Americans, despite local political tensions in Haiti and international tensions in Cuba.

Travel a Wonderful Gift

With world travel such a bargain, now is a perfect time for parents to give their children and/or their grandchildren trips abroad. They will make wonderful new friends whom they never would know otherwise, and will become far more aware of the differences—and the similarities—among the various peoples of the earth. What could be more broadening for young, alert minds than such a wonderful experience I consider this one of the finest investments that older people can make in the future of their younger heirs.

I have traveled widely myself, having been to most of the important countries on both sides of the Iron Curtain. Never have I taken a trip without coming home with the feeling that I have learned a great deal that I could not possibly have learned any other way. If you want to take a trip yourself, or if you want to give a trip to a relative as a gift, I advise you to deal with a travel agency in or near a city close to where you live. Details will be taken care of for you, whether the trip is to be by ship, plane, or some of each. You will find that you can often get alternative possibilties, making the actual decisions later. Your local travel agency will keep you posted.

Driver Training Car Given to KHS

A new dual control training car was presented this week to Kingston High School by Old Capital Motors Inc., East Chester Street bypass for use in the school's driver education program.

The keys of the 1963 Mercury Meteor were turned over to Dan Allen, high school principal by Jack Dawkins, sales manager of the auto sales agency.

Arrangements for the loan of the car to Kingston High School were made through the Automobile Club of New York, local affiliate of the American Automobile Association. The car will be on loan for one year.

Students passing the Driver Education course, which is offered as an elective subject, receive one-half unit of credit towards graduation and are eligible for a senior operator's license upon reaching their 17th birthday.

Kings Meant to Force Aces

By OSWALD JACOBY
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

South arrived at four hearts on what is usually described as "Poppa-Momma" bidding, but there was nothing "Poppa-Momma" about his play.

Most people would have wound up down one and complaining about losing both diamond finesses, but Sonny Moyse, the editor of Bridge World magazine, played the hand as if he wanted to use it in an article.

Actually there was nothing complicated about the play. Sonny played a low club from dummy at trick one. East won with the jack and led the five of spades and right here is where Sonny came up with a play to distinguish the men from the boys.

He covered the five with his king. West won with the ace and returned the jack. Sonny played dummy's queen and, when East followed with the four spot, Sonny's worries were over. He drew trumps and lost a club finesse to East's king, but East did not have a spade to lead and eventually Sonny got rid of his last spade on the long club in dummy.

Sonny's play would not have succeeded against a 6-1 spade break, but neither would the play of a low spade provided West came up with the correct defensive play.

Promotions Follow Dept. Reshuffle

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—A reorganization of the central office of the State Mental Hygiene Department has resulted in the promotion of two officials.

They are:

Dr. Donald W. Cohen, chief child guidance psychiatrist, named deputy director of community services.

Dr. Charles I. McAllister, director of education services, named deputy director of mental retardation services.

The promotions were announced Thursday.

Year-Round Is Easier

The trend is away from the regular spring cleaning, when the house is turned upside-down. Some women still insist upon cleaning once in the fall. However, if you clean one room a month, your house will always be in enviable shape and you will feel the wear-and-tear less.

Openings Listed For Paratroopers In Regular Army

During the next three months the Army will have openings for more than 3,000 volunteers for paratroop training according to Sgt. Edward Malenski, Army recruiter for the Ulster County area.

Sgt. Malenski said some of the reasons for this large number of openings are: Many men drafted during the Berlin Crisis in 1961 are now eligible for discharge; the authorized number of airborne personnel has recently been increased; and many of the Army's most qualified chutists are volunteering for duty with the "Special Forces," creating additional vacancies in regular airborne units.

Sgt. Malenski said he will be able to enlist about 20 men a month during the summer for this special assignment which has the additional attraction of an extra $55.00 a month for those who qualify.

Airborne (paratrooper) training, which lasts four weeks, is often just the first step to more specialized training and rapid advancement.

Sgt. Malenski pointed out, that the Army's Special Forces is only open to young men who first qualify for the silver wings of an Army paratrooper. Special Forces, he explained, are the modern Army counterpart of the World War II commando: Its men are trained in three or four specialties—often in a foreign language—and are taught to survive as nine-man teams behind enemy lines.

Young men interested in the many and varied opportunities available in today's Army Airborne units are urged to contact Sgt. Malenski by visiting his office at the Central Post Office, 496 Broadway, Kingston.

Possession by Demons

NEW YORK (AP) — Cases of persons being possessed by demons "are still fairly frequent," Dr. Jean Lhermitte, a French neurologist and Roman Catholic layman, writes in a new book, "True and False Possession" (Hawthorne).

"Whatever sceptics, unbelievers and the ill-informed may think, demonopathic manifestations are not extinct . . . Although it is currently maintained that cases of diabolical possession appeared more frequently in an age when religious faith was more vigorous than today, observation of the facts proves otherwise."

Keyserling Notes Dangerous Drift On Rail Policy

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — The United States is "drifting toward an unsound and dangerous" national railroad policy, a noted economist says.

Leon H. Keyserling, former chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers under President Truman, said Thursday that the drift stemmed from the "reckless move toward railroad mergers and by the work-rules promulgations in their present form."

The current approach to the railroad problem was that the railroads had to consolidate their economic power and expand their size through merger to improve their financial position and better serve the public, Keyserling said.

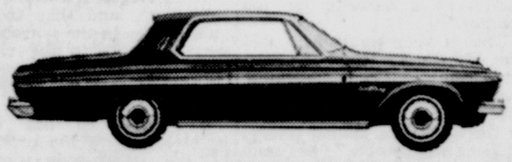

He spoke to approximately 350 delegates at a week-long convention here of the Switchmen's Union of North America.

WARNING ON SUN'S ECLIPSE

Saturday afternoon starting at 3:42 there will be a total eclipse of the sun visible in this area. Carelessness in looking at this astronomical phenomenon without proper protection could damage your eyes permanently.

The National Society for the Prevention of Blindness takes the position that there is no safe way to look directly at the eclipse. It urges indirect viewing.

The great danger is that the retina, or screen of the eye, will be burned by infrared or heat rays from the sun. There is no pain, but the burn can scar the retina, and this may create a black spot in central vision at whatever the eye looks at. There is no remedy.

The Society warns that sunglasses, smoked glass, exposed photographic film and welder's goggles are not safe for watching the eclipse. Only by indirect methods, such as on television can the eclipse be observed without risking damage to the eyes. A simple projector made with two pieces of white cardboard may be used. A pinhole in the top cardboard projects the image of the eclipse on the cardboard held underneath. The viewer should stand with his back toward the darkened sun. Don't look directly at the sun through the pinhole.

Parents should keep their children under close supervision during the time of the eclipse. Dr. H. S. Ingraham, commissioner of health, says that children are particularly susceptible to vision damage of this type.

Alert your children to the eclipse dangers and set the proper example by taking the necessary precautions.

The Chinese Communists say the Sino-Soviet split is worsening but they'll still send delegates to Moscow. They're willing to talk — but they won't play ball.

DANGER IN THE SPLIT

There is nothing open-and-shut, so far as benefit to the West is concerned, about the ideological split between Moscow and Peking. This crisis in the Communist world probably will work to the advantage of free nations. The possible advantages should not be exaggerated. Nor should the potential dangers be ignored.

The greatest of these dangers is that China, anxious to prove its right to lead the Communist bloc, may embark on adventures of the kind which the Soviet Union has been careful to avoid because of the danger of thermonuclear war. This danger is regarded with the greatest foreboding in Moscow, as it is in the capital of every responsible nation. Peking's attitude is different.

Awareness that a nuclear holocaust would be the supreme disaster has been largely instrumental in impelling the Khruschev government to state that war is not necessary or desirable. The Communist Chinese leaders, either out of ignorance or because they think a substantial fraction of their enormous population would survive to dominate a post-war world, minimize the danger and insist that war is inevitable.

This attitude was expressed most recently in the Chinese attack on the policy of peaceful co-existence, an attack to which the Soviet Union has now replied with a long open letter addressed to the world's Communist parties. Peking accuses Moscow of a bourgeois pacifist outlook on the question of war. Moscow replies that the Chinese foolhardily ignore the chances of preventing a world war, underestimate the consequences of such a war, and foster the false notion that mankind could build a bright future on the ruins.

At this stage, one can only hope that the Moscow view will prevail among Communist nations. And even if it does, irresponsible adventures by the Red Chinese—especially if they get atomic weapons capability—cannot be ruled out.

'These Days'

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

Should We Have an Official "Honors List"?

So we have a "Queen's Honors" list in America, or something analogous to it — an "Independence Day" honors list for creative citizens chosen to receive the Presidential Medal of Freedom. Twenty-nine Americans and two foreigners have already been named as the first recipients.

Well, the more honors the better, I suppose, but if medals are to go out once a year from the White House to reward "talent which enlarges the public vision of the dignity with which life can be graced and the fullness with which it can be lived," isn't there a danger, to put it crassly, that Republicans will carry off a lion's share of the decorations under Republican administrations, while the Democrats — and those who have aided them — will triumph in Democratic years? If the Supreme Court, in Mr. Dooley's words, follows the election returns, can the artist and inventors and others who work for "peace and cultural achievement" be far behind?

This is not to say that the 31 first recipients of what has already been described as our "highest civilian award" are not highly deserving men and women. But why one man instead of another? And aren't there some concealed slaps in the first list?

Take the two foreigners who were among those honored. Jean Monnet, the Frenchman who has long been active in promoting a United States of Europe, is a great man — and when the people at Freedom House, an organization of private citizens in New York City, chose to honor him, I was among those who cheered. But when he is specifically selected as the recipient of an award coming from the White House at a time when President Kennedy is personally displeased with de Gaulle, the action can be considered a bit pointed, to say the least. As for Pablo Casals, the violoncellist, he is associated with a certain attitude toward Franco's Spain. Again the question of foreign policy arises: just what will be made of the selection of Casals in Madrid?

The businessmen and bankers who were among the first 31 medalists — Robert Lovett, Ellsworth Bunker, Clarence Randall, John J. McCloy — have been long on help to governmental agencies. They are all excellent men. But if we are talking about "peace and cultural advancement," maybe Roger Blough of U. S. Steel deserves a prize for standing out against government attempts to fix prices in peace time. Can you see Blough appearing on a White House list of honors for upholding the spirit of the original anti-trust act, which was supposed to prevent price fixing?

After all these years Mark S. Watson, winner of a Pulitzer Prize in 1945, is honored as the one journalist fit to stand among the list of 31. Watson is an estimable man, but, offhand, I could name 20 or 30 journalists whose work has been just as brilliant, although sometimes less devoted to the causes of what William Buckley and Richard Rovere call the "Establishment." There's Ruby Hart Phillips, for example, who spent so many honorable years as the New York Times correspondent in Havana. She saw through the pretentions of Fidel Castro long before others. Can you see a medal going to the likes of her at a time when certain people in positions of power and influence are smarting because they guessed wrong on Castro's character?

The three prominent educators on the list are Alexander Meiklejohn, ex-president of Amherst; James B. Conant, former president of Harvard; and Ralph J. Bunche, now a U. N. Under Secretary. Good men, all of them. But if the White House wished to honor the educators who have sparked significant cultural change in recent years, why not Robert Hutchins, who thinks college students should read a few of the Great Books, or Mortimer Smith of the Council for Basic Education, whose war on "educationese," that barbarous trade language of half-literate teachers, has been truly inspired? Dr. Meiklejohn was a rebel in education 40 years ago. I think he deserves recognition — but it is a sobering thought if the White House is to catch up with significant rebels two generations late.

We have heard a lot about the separation of church and state. I'd feel more comfortable about freedom in America if there were also to be a separation of culture and the state. If prizes are to be given out, they should be left to voluntary bodies such as the Pulitzer Prize committee. Good men should not be tempted into cocking an eye on the political acceptability of their style or their views.

Ringworm, Other Skin Ills Require Exacting Care

Q—Is ringworm primarily a fungus condition or a blood condition? How can I get rid of it? Is it the same as athlete's foot?

A—Ringworm is a fungus disease that may attack any part of the skin but it has a marked preference for parts that are moist. For this reason it is common in the groin and in the feet where it is called athlete's foot. Many persons who are not in the least athletic also get it. A new fungicide, chloroxylenol, has proved very effective in some persons who have used it.

Recent studies indicate that in some persons rod-shaped bacteria rather than a fungus cause athlete's foot. This would account for the failure of some victims to get relief from any of the fungicides and for their cure by other drugs.

It all boils down to what I have said many times in the past: First, find the exact cause. When this is done the treatment prescribed by your doctor is often surprisingly easy. But always, you must keep your feet as dry as possible as much of the time as possible.

Q—For several weeks I have had a salty taste in my mouth. I've checked with my dentist and have used different kinds of mouthwash but nothing seems to help. What could cause this?

A—This rather baffling symptom is observed in some persons who smoke excessively. If you smoke try cutting it out for four or five weeks and see whether the salty taste disappears. Cutting out smoking will give you other dividends as well. On the other hand, the taste may be due to an acid saliva in contact with an amalgam filling, but such a cause would have been discovered by your dentist. In a few persons sleeping with the mouth open is associated with a salty taste.

If you are taking medicines that contain ammonium or calcium chloride, sodium or potassium iodide, or sodium bicarbonate, this could be the cause. If you are not taking any of these try cutting down or eliminating table salt from your diet for a week and see if that will not help you.

Q—What would cause me to feel pain in a leg that was taken off 10 years ago?

A—Nearly every person who has an amputation has some painful sensation in the severed ending of the nerve that supplied the lost leg. This is called phantom leg pain. In most persons this clears up in a few months. Operations to further remove sensory pathways to or in the brain have been attempted when the pain is persistent and severe, but the results are often disappointing.

Q—My sister has a craving to eat raw rolled oats. She is gaining weight. Is it harmful to eat rolled oats raw?

A—Rolled oats may be eaten raw without harm, but an excessive gain in weight is harmful and the rolled oats may be a contributing factor.

"He Says It Can't Wait!"

Washington News

BY PETER EDSON
Washington Correspondent
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Just as if civil rights problems at home weren't bothering the American government enough, African affairs are coming into the Washington spotlight to complicate the international situation.

They will give the United Nations the gravest test it has had since Soviet Russia proposed its "troika" plan for administering all U.N. activities.

A four-member Africa delegation headed by Mongi Slim of Tunisia is due in New York soon and probably will come to Washington to discuss the South African racial policy of apartheid and Portuguese colonial policies in Angola and Mozambique. Both of these issues will be before the U.N. Security Council in the last 10 days of July and early August.

They will also be important items on the agenda for the General Assembly session opening in mid-September. The question of financing continued support for the Congo will also be a related and most important assembly issue.

The Mongi Slim mission was set up by the new Organization of African Unity, founded at Addis Ababa in May.

The sentiment expressed at his Pan-African conference of 31 independent countries was that South Africa—which did not attend the meeting and is not an OAU member—should be expelled from the United Nations or that sanctions be applied against her. Similar views were expressed on Portugal.

IF THE SLIM MISSION EXPECTS to have South Africa and Portugal excluded from U.N. affairs, it is probably in for a disappointment.

The Security Council can vote only to recommended exclusion of a U.N. member by the General Assembly. The question is subject to veto in the Security Council. How the Soviet Union would vote on this is unknown.

A likely procedure is that enough members of the Security Council would abstain from voting to make a majority decision impossible. Securing a two-thirds majority vote for exclusion in the General Assembly would be just as difficult.

The only time a country was ever kicked out of an international organization was when Italy was expelled from the old League of Nations for its invasion of Ethiopia.

THE ALTERNATIVE to expulsion would be the application of economic or political sanctions to force South Africa and Portugal to change their policies. This will also be a difficult move to put over, for there is another issue at stake.

The question of whether Soviet Russia can be deprived of its vote in the United Nations for failure to pay assessments in support of the U.N. Emergency Force peace-keeping operations in the Congo comes to a head in 1964. The U.S.R.R. will then be two years in arrears. France will also be two years in arrears in 1965 if it continues present policies.

Neither country would want to vote for sanctions against South Africa or Portugal if that would set a precedent for action to deprive Russia and France of their U.N. votes later on.

Assistant Secretary of State Harlan Cleveland, in charge of United Nations affairs, has just returned from Europe where he discussed strategy for the coming Security Council and General Assembly sessions with British, French and Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development country officials, which include Canadians and Japanese.

Together, these OECD countries give the U.N. 80 per cent of its funds and 85 per cent of the people doing its work. The desire is to secure as united a front as possible in handling these important issues in the coming months.

The Integration Problem And the Quota System

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — For a long time now, many people in the South have been saying that the newspapers of the North don't understand the "segregation" problem. But something has happened recently which indicates that prominent newspapers in the north—The New York Times and The New York Herald Tribune—are beginning to understand that "integration" isn't as simple as it has appeared to be.

"Equal rights," for instance, are being found to be impractical if they are literally applied in education. Even the viewpoint of the Supreme Court of the United States—that a Negro child can't get as good an education in segregated as in a desegregated school — is turning out to be more theoretical than practical.

Realistic Editorial

Perhaps the most realistic editorial that has been written on the impracticality of racial equality in the public schools appeared on Thursday in The New York Times. The full text is as follows:

"New York City is doing some hard and needed thinking these days about how to give the Negro his equal opportunity in every way — education, jobs, housing, everything. That is good. But the Negro, equally with the white man, should be wary of easy solutions, quick remedies that seem to promise instant success. One of these is inherently unjust and inhumane. It is the quota system.

"It has been the temptation of surface plausibility. If the population of the city is 15 per cent Negro, why shouldn't the Negro have 15 per cent of the jobs? If the population of Manhattan is 25 per cent Negro, then he should have 25 per cent of the jobs in Manhattan. Easy, isn't it? But go on from there.

"If this reasoning were valid, the quota should be immediately applied in every business, in every industry and on every level —whether there were qualified applicants or not. And it would apply to religions, nationalities—and how many other kinds of divisions? Every floor in every office building would have to have its quota of shade of color, race or whatnot. To state the proposition is to show its absurdity and also its inherent evil.

Look at Schools

"Now let us look at the public schools. With the best will in the world how, in Manhattan, can 'quota' be achieved even if it were desirable to do so? Negro and Puerto Rican children in that borough total 76.5 per cent of elementary school enrollment and 71.6 per cent of junior high school enrollment. City-wide, there are 117 elementary schools whose pupils are Negro or Puerto Rican by 90 per cent or more. These schools cannot be made 'white.' A satisfactory percentage of integration can be achieved neither by busing, nor by zoning, nor by governmental fiat, nor by magician's wand.

"What is possible in this impossible situation? The Board of Education can do its best with the fullest use of the tried previous methods, which include the open enrollment policy of moving some Negro children to under-utilized schools in 'white' or mixed districts. New schools can and must be built in 'fringe' areas. But the best thing it can do for the Negro now is to bring him the best school that can be bought with money and talent.

"Joseph P. Lyford, staff member of the Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions and author of a study being made for the Fund for the Republic, for nearly a year has been working in a 40-block area of the Upper West Side of Manhattan. The other day he said:

Make Schools Better

"'In my interviews over the past 10 months with low-income Negro and Puerto Rican parents in the area, never once has the question of racial percentages been raised as a concern. The parents' interests have been in the type of teachers the children have . . . and the various facilities the school has to offer. All this leads me to feel that there is a considerable gap between the concerns of the low-income Negro families in my area and the avowed aims of various organizational leaders who presume to speak for them.'

"The novel idea was thus presented that parents are more interested in good teachers and good teaching for their children than in color quotas. It is to their credit that they are. The best thing the city can do for the Negro is to make the schools better."

The New York Herald Tribune just a week earlier — on July 11 — said in an editorial:

"True equality doesn't lie in mathematical formulas, in the careful maintenance of a 'nice balance,' or in a reverse racism that seeks to boost the Negro through preferential hiring or arbitrary advancement. Racial quotas are as un-American as discrimination itself. They separate, they categorize, they label; they inherently contradict the idea of equal opportunity, because they establish separate ladders of opportunity."

But what becomes of the view that Negro leaders have been expounding—namely, that equality should mean equality, that for all jobs held by white men there must be a certain percentage of Negroes working alongside them, and that the same rule applies in the schools? Also, what happens to the views of those "moderates" in the South who have felt "token integration" to be adequate?

Anybody who has insisted heretofore that the practicality of the problem, rather than theoretical equality, must be taken into account has found himself classed as "racist" or a "Negro-hater." In the end, it will be discovered that the best friends of the Negro are those who want to see such changes made as will truly benfit and not injure him or his opporunity to enjoy "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

Moses sat on the edge of a peach-colored cloud, looking down. Young John passed by, stopped, and asked the venerable prophet what he was doing. "Looking," said the Bearded One. "Ah," said St. John, as though he understood. Moses lifted one sandal loose, and scratched the sole of his foot. He was a grim man, with fierce humorless eyes and white hair and white whiskers.

He pointed far off into space. "That little planet," he said as a teacher might address a student, "is earth. You and I should remember it." John nodded. Moses spoke in sonorous cadence, a lamenting chant. "Jehovah," he said, "has ordered me to examine it, and especially the creatures made in His image and likeness."

Young John began to show interest. "Tell me," he said, "what do you see?" "Everything," said Moses, "because God has empowered me to see everything." "Of course. Of course," said St. John agreeably, "but what? I have been there since you left and I may be able—"

"The people," said Moses, as though he had not heard, "are prolific. There are two billion five hundred million of them and they are having trouble feeding themselves." "Oh well," said John—. "This," said Moses, "in spite of all the rich soil, the forests and the minerals God left them."

He stared down, the heavy brows almost obscuring his eyes. "You would hardly recognize it," he said, almost as though speaking to himself. "There are many new nations: The Soviet Union, the United States, the Congo, Italy—many new ones. Strangely, they fear each other. They have built powerful weapons which can be seen winking as lights all the way up to here."

"What are the weapons for?" said John. Moses sighed and slapped his palms against his big knees. "For nothing. They are not to be used at all. The big nations have them in galleons under the sea, on the sea, on land and in metal birds above the land. But they are not to be used, you see, because they are so powerful that they will destroy everybody."

John frowned. "Even those who use them?" "Even those who use them." "Then of what use—?" "Do not ask me," Moses said. "I am trying to understand so that I can make a comprehensive report." John did not want to risk the displeasure of the old man, so he changed the subject. "You say that one of the nations is united? That sounds hopeful."

"The United States," said Moses, still looking. "That is the name, my young friend, not the effect. They call themselves that, but some parts believe in one thing, some believe in others. They quarrel almost all the time. Those with red skin despise those with white skin, and those with white skin despise those with brown skin. Those with black skin are in rebellion against all of the others, and many of the temples are pitted against each other too."

"Then how are they united?" said John, who looked confused. Moses was patient. "In war," he said. "In peace they dissipate their energies quarreling with each other, but when they are threatened by another nation, they unite at once." "Yes," said John, as though he understood. "Yes."

"The Soviet Union," said Moses, pointing, "is another matter. They have many of these winking weapons, but little else. Many of their people are poorly clothed and poorly fed. Still, they want to divide the wealth of the earth among all. They are so firm in this desire that they threaten all other nations with extermination."

"Isn't this banditry?" said the innocent young saint. Moses shook his head. "No. They call it political philosophy. They have embarked on a crusade to convert the rest of the world—by force or persuasion." John shook his head sadly. "Where do they worship?" he said.

"At a place called The Kremlin," said Moses. "They worship a God called materialism." "What form does this false God take?" "Oh," said Moses, "he is many things: an automobile, a job, a television set, a loaf of bread. He can be anything that the worshipper aspires to own."

"Doesn't anyone aspire to Heaven?" said the Young One. He leaned over the edge of the cloud and tried to see the Soviet Union. "Don't be naive," said Moses. "These creatures have intelligence, and they are so clever that they regard God and Heaven as a narcotic for the ignorant."

"This is very confusing," said John. He stood. "The more I listen to you, the less I understand. Doesn't anyone believe in God down there?" Moses nodded, and for the first time, smiled briefly. "Millions of people," he said. "Millions and millions in many nations. Most of them are so busy trying to copyright Him that they quarrel all the time."

"Copyright?" said John. "What is that?" It's a word meaning to invent and own." John dusted his garment carefully and lifted his hand in farewell. "By the way," he said, "what kind of a report are you going to write?"

"Oh," said Moses, staring off into space, "that everything is pretty much as He left it." . . .

GE Files Unfair Labor Practices In Brief Strike

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — The General Electric Co. has filed an unfair labor practices charge against the International Union of Electrical Workers in connection with a one-day strike at the GE installation here Tuesday.

The charge, filed with the National Labor Relations Board Thursday, accuses IUE Local 320 of mass picketing, blocking plant entrances, assault and battery, threats of personal injury, personal property damage, and violation of a picketing agreement signed by the local in 1960.

One man was arrested during the picketing on a charge of disorderly conduct. Four pickets claimed they were injured by automobiles moving into the company's parking lot.

The union said the strike stemmed from a breakdown in negotiations for a local supplement to the national GE-IUE contract.

Friedman Scores 'Hurry-up Court' For Bench Ouster

NEW YORK (AP) — Former State Supreme Court Justice Louis L. Friedman of Brooklyn, seeking $4,453 in back pay from the city, charged in Supreme Court Thursday that he was ousted by a "hurry-up court on the judiciary."

Justice Charles Marks reserved decision.

Friedman, accused of obstructing a judicial investigation into ambulance chasing in Brooklyn in 1957, said that the Court on the Judiciary which removed him from office last Feb. 22 never was constituted validly and lacked jurisdiction.

His attorney, Raphael H. Weiss, said that although the law requires that six jurists sit in removal actions only four were present in Friedman's case.

To correct this defect, Weisss said, a rule was adopted illegally to the efffect that four members of the court would constitute a quorum. Weiss termed Friedman's ouster "a nullity and of no efffect."

Asking that the petition be dismissed, Asst. Corporation Counsel Irwin L. Herzog said City Comptroller Abraham D. Beame was bound by the order isssued by the Court on the Judiciary "and he can do nothing."

Fish Killed

CORTLAND, N.Y. (AP)—Thousands of fish, including trout, walleyes and carp, were killed by cyanide along a 15-mile stretch of the Tioughnioga River.

The State Conservation Department, said Thursday it is trying to determine where the poison came from.

The dead fish were discovered last weekend.

YMCA Day Camp To Start Second Half on Monday

YMCA Day Camp will start its second half of the 1963 season on Monday and continue until August 16, it was announced by Louis H. Schafer, executive secretary.

Leon I. Van Heusen, the 1963 camp director has a most unique program of varied camp activities. During the first four weeks of camp many skills were taught and now during the second half, special awards will be given to boys and girls for their achievement in arts and crafts, nature study, Indian lore; prizes for all sport contests as well as the four divisions of swimming, minnow, fish, flying fish and shark.

Diplomas will be presented to those who pass in sailboat handling. Sailboating is new at camp, and it is giving many boys and girls first-hand knowledge of manning the same under the guidance of the camp director. Campers using the boats must pass a special swimming test.

A hiking group is organized each week with a special hike planned to Mt. Tremper on Wednesday. They will also visit the fire tower and have a short talk with Fire Warden Aaron Van de Bogart.

The Indian Olympic Field Day will occupy parts of two days during the next two weeks. The Indian Lore and Indian games at camp are also an innovation. The snipe hunt and water carnival will also take part of two days in the next two weeks of camp. The scavanger hunt, last week, was most interesting and according to program set up, the snipe hunt should prove as interesting.

Secretary Schafer, former day camp director, makes weeekly trips to camp and takes over the campers rest period and story hour in the Indian council ring. This also is a new facility at camp. Schafer's bag of tricks with paddles and cards are most baffling along with his novel disappearing acts.

Softball and volleyball are competitive games where groups challenge each other. Sometimes two groups band together and challenge the counsellors. Athletic activities are carried on throughout every day.

A new nature trail will be opened during the fifth week of camp.

Instructions for beginners and advanced swimmers are being taught daily by the water front director and his counsellors assistants. Many campers are given tests in various phases of swimming. The beginners that swim 75 feet are called minnows and are ready to advance to other test groups.

Camp Director Van Heusen is making special plans to accommodate extra boys and girls throughout this second half of camp starting Monday. All boys and girls that have had kindergarten and up to 14 years of age are eligible to enroll in the YMCA camp. Information is available by phoning the YMCA or at the main office, 507 Broadway.

FPC Would Levy Charge on State's St. Lawrence Job

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Federal Power Commission is proposing to charge the New York State Power Authority $114,232 annually on the authority's St. Lawrence Power Project for the period from July 17, 1958, through Dec. 31, 1961.

The proposal becomes final within 30 days if no exceptions are filed or review initiated by the commission.

Examiner Edward B. March, who filed the proposal Thursday, rejected the authority's contention that its project was designed primarily to provide or improve navigation. As such, it would have been exempt from the annual charges assessed on licensees of the commission.

Psychiatrist Gives View

WOODLAND, Calif. (AP)— Dr. Sidney Green, a defense-hired psychiatrist, has testified that Howard Billy Green, on trial for armed robbery along with Frank Leo Fitch, had no free will at the time of the service station robbery, May 14.

The two men, both 23 and of Sayre, Pa., have pleaded innocent at their Superior Court trial here. Green's plea is innocent by reason of insanity.

The doctor said Green committed the robbery when "a hostile impulsiveness took over." He pointed to Green's history of violence and fights in his home town.

Killed at Fire Scene

CICERO, N.Y. (AP) — An 18-year-old youth was injured fatally today, apparently when struck by falling debris at the scene of a barn fire just outside this community near Syracuse.

State Police identified the victim as Robert Sharpe, 18, of Cicero. They said he was moving a hayloader from the side of the barn when part of the wall collapsed.

The cause of the fire was not determined.

Court Puts Off Desegregation in Mobile Till '64

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—The 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals Thursday delayed court-ordered desegregation of public schools in Mobile, Ala., until 1964.

The action came in the court's modification of its July 9 decision which directed the Mobile City-County School Board to submit a desegregation plan, starting with the first grade, by Aug. 1.

The modification postponed the deadline for submission of the stairstep plan until Aug. 1. A district court hearing was set for Nov. 14, thus putting off the effective date for any plan to be put into operation until next year.

Repeats 1958 Offer

In quick succession he:

Revived a Russian offer of 1958 to permit foreign inspectors to take up station at Soviet airfields, railroad stations, highways and ports to prevent secret concentrations of troops for surprise attacks.

Proposed an exchange of inern troops in West Germany and Soviet troops in East Germany, adding that the Russians were ready to negotiate a reciprocal reduction in the number of those troops on both sides.

Insisted again on the signing of a peace treaty with Germany that would settle the status of West Berlin, but set no deadline.

Sees End of Mankind

Declared a new world war is no necessary to build communism or speed up revolution. Challenging Peking's hard line views, he said a nuclear war could destroy mankind and even those who survive might "envy the dead."

All the peoples of the world will break with capitalism sooner or later, Khrushchev declared, but "the victory of socialism (communism) in every given country is decided by the people of that country. This question cannot be solved by unleashing a world thermonuclear war."

Khrushchev said the limited nuclear test ban agreement being hammered out by Harriman, Lord Hailsham of Britain and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko will put an end to the radioactive contamination of the atmosphere.

"This means it would prevent the dangerous consequences which the continuation of nuclear tests might have on the health of present and future generations," he said.

The conference, which Khrushchev opened Monday with a warm welcome for the Western envoys, came to the end of its first week today with diplomats still reporting progress toward agreement on a test ban treaty.

The task of treaty drafting has been largely turned over to a subcommittee.

Sentence Physician

A 52-year-old Harlem Valley State Hospital physician was sentenced Thursday by Dutchess County Judge John R. Schwartz to 60 days in the county jail on a charge of driving a car while intoxicated. Dr. George N. Hindson, of Wingdale, had previously pleaded guilty to a charge that had been reduced from a felony to a misdemeanor on recommendation of District Attorney Raymond C. Baratta. The physician was ticketed Jan. 30 after a two-car collision at Pawling, in which he suffered knee and rib fractures.

Electrol Starts Vacation Monday, Payroll Adjusted

Conditions which caused two recent payroll delays at Electrol Inc., 85 Grand Street are presently adjusted satisfactorily, it was noted today, and plant employes on Monday are due to start a vacation of two weeks.

William S. Gillmor, vice-president of Electrol, which manufactures hydraulic equipment, reported at the time of the payroll trouble that it was due to the "discretionary powers" of banks involved. Each delay was of short duration.

Sale of Electrol, and of the Avien Corp., of Woodside, L. I., of which the local plant is a subsidiary, is pending.

Electrol, Gillmor said, has had a good fiscal year. Involvement with banks, he noted, was due to money advanced to the plant and to the "protracted" negotiations for sale of the plant. A "considerable amount" of the loans have been paid, he said.

The local plant has 240 employes, part of whom work on a skeleton second shift. Its volume output is $3,000,000 annually and the weekly payroll averages some $24,000.

All but a skeleton force are due to go on the vacation which starts Monday.

Riviera Has Earthquake

TURIN, Italy (AP) — Three strong earthquakes rumbled across northwest Italy and the Italian and French Riviera coasts early today, sending thousands of pajama-clad tourists and residents fleeing to open ground.

A number of persons fainted from fright, but there were not reports of deaths or injuries.

The Turin Regional Meteorological Isntitute said the quake, which came after a violent electrical storm over the mountainous French-Italian frontier, was centered in the Aosta Valley in the Italian Alps.

It was the worst quake in 55 years in the Turin-Riviera area. Earthquakes are rare along the Riviera.

Advises Contestants

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Miss Universe, Norma Nolan, gathered 15 beautiful women from five continents around her and said quietly, first in English, then in Spanish:

"One of you will wear this crown. Be proud, be proud. I love you."

The dark-haired Argentine will crown one of the 15, chosen Thursday night from a bevy of 50, as her successor Saturday night.

On today's agenda were lengthy rehearsals, hair styling and rest. Because most of the finalists speak little English, and interpretations are needed, briefings would take double the alloted time.

Nixon Goes to Vienna

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP) — Former U.S. Vice President Richard M. Nixon left for Vienna by train today after a post midnight tour of the giant Csepel Steel Works, stronghold of the 1956 anti-Communist uprising.

Nixon, who came to Hungary on a three-day private visit, at times found himself battling enthusiastic crowds.

Thursday when he toured Budapest's 13th City District, whose tens of thousands of workers helped spark the 1956 revolt, he was surrounded by hundreds of autograph seekers and others who just wanted to shake his hand.

Seeks Polaris Talks

By ENDRE MARTO N

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States is determined to start talks soon with its allies on the technical and legal problems of the proposed Polaris-equipped surface fleeet for the Atlantic alliance.

The talks, officials said, will be held in Washington next month or in September.

The aim is to clear the way for countries which want to participate to commit themselves before the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's Ministerial Council meets in Paris in December.

Settle Dutchess Plumbing Tieup

POUGHKEEPSIE, N.Y. (AP)—Negotiators settled early today a 20-day plumbers strike that had tied up home construction throughout Dutchess County.

A new contract signed by Local 201 of the Plumbers and Steamfitters Union, AFL-CIO, and 10 plumbing contractors grants a 60-cent hourly boost in wages and fringe benefits.

The three-year pact covers 150 plumbers employed by seven plumbing firms in Dutchess County, one in Albany and two in New York City. They will return to work Monday.

The plumbers have been getting $3.50 an hour.

Fire Destroys Shed

Mrs. Lena Wolf

Mrs. Lena Wolf, 90 of 40 Church Street, Coxsackie, a former resident of Saugerties died Thursday after a short illness. She operated a rooming house in Saugerties many years ago and her culinary art was well known in the village. Born in Germany on Jan. 20, 1873, she was a daughter of the late Fred and Magdaline Ebel. She had been a resident of Coxsackie for about 10 years after she moved from Saugerties. Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Aline Parslow of Coxsackie, with whom she resided, and Mrs. Dora Smith of Saugerties; a grandson, Richard P. Smith and two great-grandchildren, Sharon and Richard Smith, all of Saugerties. Funeral services will be held Saturday 2 p. m. at Gardner Funeral Home Coxsackie with burial in Mt. View Cemetery, Saugerties. Friends may call at the funeral home any time today.

Vincent Aurigemma

Vincent Aurigemma, 75, of South Road, Marlboro, died Thursday in Marlboro after a long illness. He was born in Italy Oct. 22, 1887, son of the late Andrew and Speranza Scibella Aurigemma. He married Rose Rinaldi. Mr. Aurigemma was a retired fruit farmer. He had lived in the community for 25 years, and was a member of St. Mary's Church, Marlboro. He is survived by his wife; four sons, Pasquale, of Norwich, Conn.; Stephen J. and James, Marlboro, and Andrew, Esopus; six daughters, Mrs. Felicia Vinciguerra, of the Bronx; Mrs. Florence Affuso, Middlehope; Mrs. Julia DeFazio, Mrs. Viola DeFabio, and Mrs. Rose Marie Linsig, of Marlboro, and Mrs. Rita Pucino, of Newburgh; a brother, Alfred, in Italy; 25 grandchildren and two great grandchildren. The funeral will be held Monday at 9:30 a. m. from the Tutthill Funeral Home, Marlboro, and at 10 a. m. at the Church of St. Mary's where a high Mass of requiem will be offered. Burial will be in St. Mary's Cemetery, Lattintown.

Sit-ins Halted

CHICAGO (AP) — A nine-day, around-the-clock civil rights sit-in demonstration in the Chicago Board of Education offices has been stopped by police.

Ten white and Negro demonstrators, who had refused to leave a conference room where the sit-in was conducted, were arrested Thursday on charges of trespass and disorderly conduct.

The Congresss of Racial Equality, which had organized the protest against what CORE terms de facto school segregation resulting from drawing school attendance boundaries along neighborhood lines, promised another sit-in soon.

Child Hit by Car

Thomasine Carpino, 6, of 61 East Chester Street, was taken to Kingston Hospital Thursday afternoon for X-rays, after a car-pedestrian mishap near her home. A police report at 4:45 p. m., said she ran from behind a parked car and was struck by a fender of a car driven by Michael Lovy, RD 1, Box 471, Kingston. Extent of her injuries was not reported, but her condition was reported as "fair" today at the hospital.

Crys Wolf Too Often

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — A man described as a good swimmer had been playing pranks on his friends by pretending to drown. He cried help again, his friends ignored him and he drowned Thursday.

Authorities said the victim, Elmo C. Scranton, 22, of Tampa, apparently got a stomach cramp and went down in 12 feet of water.

Thataway

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Police came upon Albert Ballentine as they chased a burglar. Ballentine told the officers, "He went that way." The police weren't convinced. They arrested Ballentine, 41, on a charge of larceny and breaking and entering.

Mettacahonts

METTACAHONTS — Bruce Schoonmaker, Mrs. Grant Schoonmaker, Miss Beverly Christiana and Mrs. William Relyea are enjoying a two-week vacation in Nova Scotia.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Gates and children, Sheila and Michael, returned to their home in Seattle, Wash. after visiting 10 days with Mr. Gates' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Gates. They returned home by way of Canada.

Mixed Up Turtles

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—A small army of newly hatched, mixed-up loggerhead turtles crawled the wrong way and almost wound up in a barroom.

About 100 of the turtles dug out of the sand where they had hatched. Instead of crawling right into the sea, as baby turtles are supposed to do, they walked away from it.

When patrolman James Kelly saw them Thursday, they were crosssing ocean Drive toward the Turf Bar.

Before policemen could point them in the right direction, about 20 were squashed by motorists.

Victory Appears Sure for Illia In Argentine Vote

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—Dr. Arturo Illia, high man in the July 7 elections, appears certain of enough electoral college votes to elect him president of Argentina.

Illia's Peoples Radical party received about 25 per cent of the popular vote. But the 169 seats his party won in the electoral college fell 70 short of the half-plus-one majority needed to make him president.

The 476-seat college will meet July 31 to elect a president.

The country doctor from Cordoba Province has been conducting some horse trading with other parties for the additional necessary votes. He seems assured of 73. His candidacy has met with no substantial opposition from any of the other 22 parties.

Deposed President Arturo Frondizi's Intransigent Radical party, which won 109 electoral college votes, has split.

One faction offered to back Illia if he dropped his running mate, Carlos Perette, and accepted an intransigent as vice president. Illia rejected the proposal.

The other faction and former provisional President Pedro E. Aramburu's two-party coalition have remained silent.

Illia, 62, has been concentrating on winning votes from the smaller parties, some of which have a strong following in the provinces.

INVESTED — Premier Giovanni Leone and his government has been given a vote of confidence by the Italian parliament. He pledged to resign once the budget is approved.

Ulster Library Gets Book on Savings and Loan

A book entitled, A Business Reborn—the Savings and Loan Story 1930-1960, has been donated to the Town of Ulster Library in Chambers School.

Given by the First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Kingston, the book was presented to the Town of Ulster Library Association by the executive president of the loan association, Deweese W. DeWitt, and soon will be available for borrowing.

Meanwhile, it was announced that other non-fiction books are being added to the library shelves. They include, Historic Houses of the Hudson Valley, by Harold D. Eberlein and Cortlandt Van Dyke Hubbard; The Book of Shrubs, William Carey Grimm; Wells Fargo, Edward Hungerford; A History of Art, Germain Bazin; The Bird Watcher's Anthology, Roger Tory Peterson, and Mark Twain Himself, Milton Meltzer.

Mrs. John Burger has begun her duties as librarian. Any adults or teenagers wishing to help at the library during the summer should stop by at the library desk and check on open dates available in August. The library is open Monday, Tuesday and Friday mornings from 9:30 to 11:30 and Thursday afternoons from 1 to 2:30.

President to Get Rail Word Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy receives today a report on the facts and issues in the great railroad "featherbedding" dispute—a report he will use to recommend legislation to block a nationwide strike.

The 12-page report, ground out by the six-member committee the President appointed last week, will be put in Kennedy's hands by members of the panel, headed by Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz.

The report, strictly a collection of facts and without recommendations, is not expected to be made public immediately.

The President probably will take the report with him for study at Hyannis Port, Mass., over the weekend. He plans to have his recommendations ready for presentation to Congress Monday.

The President, Wirtz and congressional leaders have said they hope some agreement would be arrived at before legislation is necessary to break the union-management deadlock. But there has been no indication of any behind-the-scenes negotiations.

At Kennedy's request the carriers agreed to hold off instituting new work rules—designed to eliminate eventually some 60,000 rail jobs deemed unnecessary by management—until July 29. Similarly, the unions agreed not to take any strike action until that time.

A draft of the report was shown to the nation's largest rail carriers and five operating unions who are involved in the work rules dispute.

Alco Gets Rail Order

SCHENECTADY, N.Y. (AP)—Alco Products Inc. has received a $3.8-million order from the Long Island Rail Road for 21 diesel-electric locomotives.

Delivery of the 2,0000-horsepower locomoties will begin this year and be completed by mid-1964, the company said.

The locomotives will be built at Alco's plants here and in Auburn.

Expect Contracts On Poughkeepsie Arterial Sept. 12

A construction contract for the Poughkeepsie south-north arterial highway is scheduled to be awarded soon after Sept. 12 by the state, it was made known Thursday by State Senator Ernest I. Hatfield and Assemblyman R. Watson Pomeroy (R-Dutchess).

State Supt. of Public Works J. Burch McMorran informed the two legislators that every effort will be made to start the work on the highway project as soon as possible after the letting of bids.

It was reported that bids on the project, estimated to cost in excess of $9,000,000 will be received at Albany on Sept. 12.

Poughkeepsie's City Manager Kenneth Pearce predicted that the project will be completed within two years, and he added, "a very substantial amount of work can be completed this fall and winter."

Rocket Try Takes Life of Boy, 13

NEW YORK (AP) — Edward Sacco Jr., 13, was making a rocket in the basement of his home in Queens.

He and a friend opened a carbon dioxide cylinder and packed it full of kitchen match heads Thursday. They had to make a hole for a fuse.

Edward put a nail to the cylinder and started pounding. After half a dozen blows the cylinder exploded.

He was fatally injured.

Hudson Laborer Crushed in Gear Of Garbage Truck

While working on a garbage truck in Greenport, near Hudson Thursday, James Snell, 54, a laborer, of 324 South Front Street, Hudson, was killed instantly when crushed in a work gear on the vehicle.

Columbia County Coroner Robert Near Jr., ruled death was accidental.

State troopers reported Snell was working on a refuse truck owned by Ward Burch and Son of Hudson, and operated at the time by Ralph Burch. State police said Burch told them Snell apparenrtly tried to kick some garbage into the truck as the worm gear was operating and was apparently pulled into the machinery.

The machinery was shut off immediately by Burch when he noticed Snell was caught in the gear.

Authorities said Snell reportedly went to Columbia County from Alabama and worked as a migrant laborer several years.

Po'keepsie Driver Pays Fines of $150

Sonya Plotnick, 21, Poughkeepsie paid a total of $150 when arraigned before Justice of the Peace Allan Dargie of Town of Esopus on charges of being an unlicensed operator and speeding. She was picked up by Poughkeepsie police on a warrant and returned to Ulster County Thursday.

Ulster County Investigator Thomas Mayone and Deputy Sheriff Carl Swenson took her before Justice Dargie on a charge of operating a motor vehicle in Port Ewen some time ago while she had no license. At the time Investigator Mayone said she had in her possession an expired California license. A charge of speeding was also lodged. She failed to appear on the adjourned date and a warrant was issued. She paid $100 on the unlicensed operator charge and $50 on the speeeding charge.

TRITHION®

stops mites, codling moth and aphids... Economically

If you want top results... and economy... get TRITHION insecticide for your apples. Use it only after full leaf expansion to control mites, codling moth and aphids. Some growers have even found it effective against apple maggot (railroad worm) and bud moth.

It controls both mites and insects. That's economy. It can be used with other commonly used insecticides and miticides at reduced rates. That's economy, too! And often, the combination of TRITHION and another miticide increases the effectiveness of both products.

TRITHION 25-W is available at your dealer. See him or write to Stauffer Chemical Company, Agricultural Chemicals Division, 380 Madison Ave., New York 17, N. Y.

Feminine Tailoring On Style Horizon; Florence, Italy

By LOUISE HICKMAN
AP Fashion Writer

FLORENCE, Italy (AP) — The Antonelli look, shown today in the Fashion Hall of the Pitti Palace, is tailored in the spirit of the current Florence fall and winter style collections.

But it is a soft, voluminous and very feminine tailoring. Nothing really seems to touch the body, but there is the clear impression of roundness and curves, all the same.

Belt-threaded waists were easy but not slack. Skirts were soft and wide. Suit jackets were basque-waisted, with soft peplins and arched over the swaying skirts.

Light back fullness on jackets and coats was dimpled in by narrow belts.

Emilio Pucci, Italy's master of sports wear, showed the most daring color combinations of his career Wednesday night.

Couture fashions were on the quiet side. But in his boutique collection, the prints that are Pucci's stock in trade mixed colors and patterns at a furious rate.

There was a profusion of colors in each print. White-ground silks covered with gray pastels stood out. So did Afghan geometrics in tones of orange and green, or pink or purple on black velveteen. These last were used for long empire at-home gowns.

The prints also included Aztec stripes, kaleidoscopic geometrics, bricklayer rectangles, flower panels, zig-zags, tile and afghan squares and horoscope circles. Usually two motifs were worked into one print.

For summer the prints came in silk twill, chiffon and terry, the last new for Pucci. Winter versions were in cotton velveteen or panne velvet.

In the couture department, suits had trim short jackets with kimono sleeves and "U" or "V" shaped seaming across the shoulders in back. Many coats and suit jackets were reversible with one side turned over to create a contrast binding on the other.

Arizona Man Named Philharmonic Business Manager: Anonymous Grant Is Received

Peter McComb, president of the Hudson Valley Philharmonic Society, today announced the appointment of William L. Watrous, Phoenix, Ariz., as business manager of the musical society effective July 15.

Mr. Watrous was selected by a comittee drawn from the Philharmonic board, which interviewed candidates responding to a bulletin sent out by the American Symphony League. Mrs. Helen M. Thompson, executive director of the League, located in Vienna, Va., said, "The Hudson Valley Philharmonic, which has enjoyed successful and rapid expansion during the last few years., now is ready for its first full time manager."

The orchestra operates in three separates communities, giving full symphony concerts, childrens' in-school concerts, opera, chamber music series, and special performances in these communities. In addition, the Philharmonic is now giving many symphony concerts in smaller cities of the Hudson Valley.

With councils in Poughkeepsie, Kingston and Newburgh, all public relations and promotional activities must be done in three areas, requiring complicated coordination on the part of the management. According to Mr. McComb, no other symphony of the Philharmonic's size operates without a full-time manager, one of whose duties will be coordinating the functions of the three councils.

Therefore, a grant has been made, by an anonymous foundation, for the specific purpose of engaging a professional business manager.

Mr. Watrous, a graduate of the University of Colorado, comes to the Philharmonic from a position as assistant manager of the Phoenix Symphony. His father, Alan J. Watrous, was for 15 years the manager of the Wichita Symphony and is now manager of the Dallas Symphony.

During a Far East tour of duty, Mr. Waterous was responsible for the operation of an intelligence unit in the Air Force. Toward the end of his tour, he and two other men were assigned the task of creating and operating a super-intelligence clearing house for the Far East.

Mr. Watrous attended the Army Language School and was a Russian language specialist in the Air Force Security Service.

He and his wife, Ann, expect to move to Poughkeepsie.

RECEPTION FOR SON AND AND HIS BRIDE

Q: My son is being married out West in his fiancee's home town. All our friends and relatives live in the East and will not be able to go to the wedding. I plan to give a reception for my son and his bride 10 days later when they will be here in this city. As the invitations will have to be sent out a few days before the wedding to give guests sufficient notice, would it be proper to have them read, "To meet Mr. and Mrs. John Smith" even though they will not as yet be that when the invitations are received?

A: Have the invitations read, "To meet Mr. and Mrs. John Smith" and put them in the mail the day before the wedding so that when they are received they will actually be Mr. and Mrs. Ten Days is sufficient time to send out the invitations.

Writing to Husband and Wife

Q: My wife and I seem to have a difference of opinion as to the proper salutation when writing to a man and his wife. Is it proper to begin a letter to them," "Dear Jim and Alice" or must it be "Dear Alice and Jim"? Does it really make any differences?

A: It really makes no difference. "Dear Jim and Alice" follows the conventional Mr. and Mrs. form but many people prefer "Dear Alice and Jim because they consider it more polite to the wife.

Figuring a Waiter's Tip

Q: Last night three couples went to a supper club. There was a cover charge of two dollars per person. When the bill was presented, the question came up as to whether the tip should be based on the total amount of the bill which includes the cover charges and tax, or just on the food and drink that was ordered? What is correct in this instance?

A: Cover charges and taxes are not included in determining the waiter's tip.

We The Women

No-Cost Attractiveness

By RUTH MILLETT
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Many women figure they could be far more attractive than they are if they had more money to spend on the right clothes, more money to spend in beauty salons, more leisure time to devote to self-improvement.

Few women stop to consider the many ways of making themselves more attractive that don't cost anything at all in either time or money.

One of those ways is to cultivate a pleasant speaking voice. It is every bit as important to a woman to have a voice that is easy to listen to as to have a face that is easy to look at.

Another no-cost way to self-improvement is for a woman to develop an enthusiastic attitude toward life. Enthusiasm is catching, and the woman who has it not only has a more vivid personality herself, but her enthusiasm sparks the interest of others.

Another quality that endears a woman to her friends is genuine interest in others. If it is real and not faked, it makes her the kind of person with whom others want to share their good fortune. For they know she will make it seem more, rather than less, by her very real delight.

And it doesn't cost a woman anything to learn to be a good listener. Everybody likes to talk, but the woman who knows how to listen has a charm that is lasting.

Almost any woman can think of ways of being helpful to others that costs her nothing more than the trouble it takes to answer the question: "What can I do to help out?"

Tag-Along Cousin Nonsense

By KATHY PETERSON
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Dear Kathy:

My cousin is living with me and I am getting tired of having her around. Whenever I get something, she gets it, too.

I'm not allowed to sleep at my friend's house unless she comes along and that's no fun. She tattles about everything I do. I've given her chances to be nice to me but it never seems to work out. I've been nice to her, it hasn't seemed to make any difference in the way she acts. What can I do? —M.F.

Have you ever played with a little puppy? The more you pat him, the more he wants to be patted. No matter how much affection you give him, he'll feel unloved if you offer another pup the slightest bit of attention. Right now, you're behaving a little like that puppy!

He can't reason but people can. We know it's possible to love more than one individual at a time but jealousy can make us shortsighted. Keep reminding yourself that your parents do love you and you won't feel cheated by the kindness they show your cousin.

You say your cousin tattles. Because of your resentment, she probably feels hurt and left out quite often. It isn't right, but isn't it human to want to get even?

The grudging kindness you offered won't win any friends. Take that chip off your shoulder and really try to be a pal.

Sharon Lee Bush Weds Lanesville Man At Methodist Church

Miss Sharon Lee Bush, daughter of Supervisor and Mrs. Ralph Bush of Chichester, exchanged marriage vows with Donald Gerard Groenewald, son of Mrs. Frances Groenewald of Lanesville and the late Philip Groenewold, Saturday, July 6 at 8 p. m. at the Wesleyan Methodist Church in Willow. The Rev. Clarence Murray, pastor of the church officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length gown of white Chantilly lace with V neckline and long pointed sleeves. Her fingertip veil of illusion was secured to a pillbox of tulle and lace. She carried a bouquet of white roses and lily of the valley.

Miss Beverly Crotty of Chicheser, niece of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a ballerina length gown of hot pink silk organza and carried a white lace fan of pink sweetheart roses.

Miss Sandra Crotty of Chichester, niece of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a ballerina length gown of peacock blue silk organza and carried a white lace fan of pink sweetheart roses.

Gordon Groenewold of Bay Port, L. I., was best man for his brother. Edwin S. Gale of Chichester, brother-in-law of the bride was usher.

For their wedding trip through upstate New York, the bride chose a red dress with white accessories and a corsage of white roses.

A reception for approximately 30 guests was given at the home of the bride's parents after the ceremony.

Mrs. Groenewold attended Onteora Central School and the bridegroom is a graduate of Hunter-Tannersville Central School, and at present is Third Class Petty Officer in the U. S. Navy stationed at Little Creek, Va.

Fay-Beberwyk Nuptials Announced; Ceremony Takes Place at St. Joseph's

Karen Christy Fay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Fay Sr., of 153 Linderman Avenue, this city, exchanged nuptial vows with Robert C. Beberwyk, of 31 Groff Street, this city, on July 13 at a double ring ceremony in St. Joseph's Church. Officiating was the Rev. Vincent Brennan.

Mrs. Frank Rafferty was organist and Don Sweeney was the soloist.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Helen Bailey of Lexington, Ky., and Carl Beberwyk of Albany.

Majestic daisies decorated the church for the occasion.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white silk peau de soie in modified sheath style fashioned with a fitted bodice and bateau neckline. The bouffant back featured a chapel length train. Her silk illusion veil was shirred to a crown of stylized flowers and she carried a white prayer book with orchids and showers of stephanotis.

Mrs. Marjorie Schlotzhauer was matron of honor. Attendants were Kathy Lawrence, Maureen McGrath, Mrs. Phyllis Lahl, sister of the bride, Miss Dorothea Ahl and Mrs. Amelia Ellwanger. All wore floor length gowns of silk organza in pastel blue in sheath style with bands of white nylon detailed with rose embroiderery. They also wore triangle headpieces that tied under the chin and carried sprays of green wisp and miniature red rosebuds.

Nicholas Reis of Kingston was best man. Ushering were James Schlotzhauer, Frank Fay Jr., brother of the bride, William Langenstein, William Phillips and Irving Wisneski.

Approximately 175 guests were received at a wedding reception given at the Capri in Port Ewen. Afterwards the couple left for Bermuda. For traveling the bride wore a pink crepe sheath with matching accessories.

Mrs. Beberwyk is a graduate of Kingston High School and is employed by the Metropolitan Insurance Company. Her husband is an alumnus of Hartwick College at Oneonta and is employed by IBM.

Mr. and Mrs. Beberwyk will reside at 50 West Pierpont Street.

Arlene Anne Ziegler of Saugerties Weds Kingston Resident, Ernest Virgil Valera

MR. AND MRS. ERNEST V. VALERA
(Gibson photo)

Arlene Anne Ziegler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Ziegler of Saugerties, wed Ernest Virgil Valera, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Valera of New York City on Saturday, July 6. The ceremony took place in St. Joseph's Church Glasco. Officiating was the Rev. Archibald Damm. Patrick Buonfiglio was the organist and Theresa Sasso was the soloist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a full length gown of chiffon the bodice of which had a scalloped bateau neckline. Her bouffant skirt was cathedral length. A tiara of bugle beads held a full fingertip length veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis blossoms and ivy with showers of ribbon.

Miss Bernice Ziegler, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. She wore a full length gown of chiffon in pink styled with draped neckline, cap sleeves and full draped skirt. A queen's crown in pink held a short circular matching veil and she carried a cascade bouquet of carnations, roses and showers of ribbon.

Anthony McKeon of New York City was best man. Ushering were William Tierney of Kingston and Jerry Saia of Kingston.

A reception was given in the White Eagle Hall, this city, for approximately 85 guests.

The bride was graduated from the College of St. Rose in Albany and has accepted a teaching position at Kingston High School this September. Her husband was graduated from the University of Detroit and is now attending night school at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. He is studying for his masters. Mr. Valera is employed by IBM as an electrical engineer.

For her trip to Lake George and Puerto Rico, the bride wore a beige eyelet embroidered sheath.

Mr. and Mrs. Valera will reside in Kingston when they return.

Tickets to the ball may be obtained at Police Headquarters or from members of the police force.

Ike and Scranton Meet at Dinner

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP)—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower and Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania dined together Thursday night at a stag dinner.

Political speculation began to circulate when news of the dinner leaked out, but a man who attended said:

"No political pronouncements were made there that will go down in history. In fact, Gen. Eisenhower and Gov. Scranton spent very little time together."

The dinner was at the home of Charles W. Wolf, attorney for the Adams County Republican organization, in New Oxford, 12 miles from Gettysburg where Eisenhower has his farm.

Miss Mary Wilks, Henry J. Harjes Exchange Vows

On Sunday, July 14 at 2 p. m., marriage vows were exchanged by Mary Wilks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Holland of Florida and Henry J. Harjes of Hurley.

The maid of honor and best man were Marilyn Murphy of Brooklyn and Jack Landers of Hurley.

The bride's dress was powder blue taffeta worn with an overskirt of chiffon. The bride also wore a silk illusion veil to match her dress.

The maid of honor wore a rose colored dress of taffeta and a matching illusion flirtation veil.

A reception was given at Ricci's Restaurant in Whiteport and was attended by approximately 100 guests.

The couple left on a wedding trip to Canada afterwards.

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Jane Russell hasn't made a movie in six years—and couldn't care less.

No wonder.

Every week, she gets a $1,000 check from the Hughes Tool Co., and she hasn't heard from her boss, Howard Hughes, in years.

"Every now and then I hear some scuttlebutt that he's going to make movies again but that's as far as it goes," says Jane. "The checks, though, are never late."

In 1955, Jane signed a million-dollar contract with Hughes that was to be paid over 20 years. The 20-year spread keeps the taxes low and the security steady.

"Also," says Jane, "I can do any other kind of work I want—even other movies. But I just don't care to work. I just like being around the house with my husband and children."

Most of her time is spent with WAIF, the international adoption agency which she founded. So far, WAIF has placed 11,000 homeless children in homes.

"It helps me—and I hope the public—forget my early cheesecake curse," says Jane.

Jane was the most celebrated cheesecake specimen in the business at a time when Marilyn Monroe was unknown and Jayne Mansfield was riding a bicycle to school.

The years have been kind to Jane's figure. If anything, she is prettier and sexier-looking now than when she started.

Occasionally, she works for fun. She and two close friends, Connie Haines and London-born Beryl Davis, have formed a nightclub act which opens Aug. 5 at the Riviera Hotel in Las Vegas.

NEW YORK (AP)—The United States moved hard on several fronts Thursday to stem the steady drain abroad of its dollars and gold.

Mild measures in the past have not done much good. The drain is worse this year than last.

The effectiveness of the new moves—and even the adoption by Congress of the more drastic proposals—may be in doubt. But the danger is not.

Giant Can Take So Much

Even an economic giant like the United States can't take such bleeding year after year. Since 1958, the continuing loss in its gold reserves and the buildup of dollars in foreign hands has put a strain on the value of the American dollar—a mainstay of international finance as well as the domestic economy.

The new moves now under way include:

1. Raising the Federal Reserve discount rate to discourage flow of idle short-term funds—called hot money—into foreign hands.

2. Arrangements to draw on the International Monetary Fund up to $500 million this year if needed to protect the dollar from speculative raids.

3. Pushing the Kennedy round of tariff negotiations with Europe and others to improve U.S. export chances.

4. Agreements with central banks of other nations to fight any speculative run on the dollar and to stem unusual demands on the U.S. Treasury for more of its gold.

The gold outflow has ebbed this year, but efforts to halt the bleeding of dollars has proved inadequate.

Minor Efforts Fail

These have included comparitively minor measures, such as curbing spending by U.S. dependents abroad and taxing goods in excess of $100 value brought back by U.S. tourists, and urging private business to try to export more.

So now Congress is being asked to approve a tax on sale of foreign securities in our markets.

The drain from investments by Americans in foreign securities or in plants abroad has been accompanied this year by a drop in return investment here by foreigners.

This drain is just one of the many that has built up foreign holdings of dollar assets to a huge total of claims that could become a threat to the dollar's integrity, if all or a sizable part were called at once.

Sees $3 Billion Loss

The balance of payment drain—the excess of dollars flowing abroad over those returning—runs like this: In 1958 the deficit was $3.4 billion; $3.8 billion in 1959; $3.9 billion in 1960; $2.5 billion in 1961; $2.2 billion in 1962.

The decline in the deficit has been reversed this year. In the first quarter it was running at an annual rate of $3.2 billion.

The National Foreign Trade Council today predicts that the whole year will see a loss of $3 billion. At the first of this year it had expected a drop to $2 billion.

But this year imports have been rising, and exports haven't advanced as fast. Last year the excess of exports over imports gave us a favorable balance of $4.3 however, erased this, and turned it into the $2.2 billion deficit.

These dollar outflows include private and government investment abroad; foreign aid, both economic and military; tourist spending, rising still higher this year.

Central banks of other nations can turn in these excess dollars for gold. This has caused the market drop in Treasury reserves in recent years.

In 1952 the Treasury had more than $23 billion in gold. As late as 1958 it had $22 billion. Today it has less than $15.7 billion. About $12 billion of that is legally required to back American currency. The remainder is called free gold—available to meet foreign demands or fight off any speculative runs.

This year the pact with other central banks has helped hold the gold loss well below former years. But the pile of dollar assets held abroad hangs over the dollar and the gold reserves and the pile is growing.

Lobster Outpost

Lobstering is the main concern of Monhegan Island, rocky outpost 10½ miles off the Maine coast. Here a top fisherman harvests as much as 15,000 pounds of lobster in a good season. With only 60 permanent residents, Monhegan operates not as a town but as a plantation, a civil unit with minimum government.

78 Arrests Made During June, 28 Hurt in Mishaps

Police Chief Robert F. Murphy's report to the police board Thursday night showed 78 arrests made in June and 28 persons injured in 20 traffic mishaps.

Also reported were 78 violations of the city traffic code and 33 infractions of the vehicle and traffic law.

Arrests for the month were 20 over the May total, and May also had one less accident with 27 persons injured. City traffic code violation were 11 above the May total, and June had six more vehicle and traffic law violations.

Of the June arrests, 54 were for public intoxication, seven for third degree assault, six for issuance of fraudulent checks, and two each for disorderly conduct and endangerment of the life and health of a child.

One arrest each was made for first degree burglary, third degree burglary, grand larceny, violation of the anti-noise law, violation of probation, panhandling, and failure to appear in court to answer a charge.

Of the accidents, nine persons were injured, in eight traffic mishaps involving two or more vehicles, four involved pedestrians, two were car-bicycle mishaps, 11 were hurt in five collisions with fixed objects, and one accident resulted in injuries to two persons when they fell from a moving vehicle.

Barn Door Locked Now

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. government has put a new lock on the barn door since 24 million bushels of American grain vanished in the sleight of hand of European trade.

The huge amounts of feed grain were destined for Austria but were last seen officially at West German ports.

Apparently the grain — purchased at a discount of 7.5 to 9 per cent — was diverted by the Austrian importing firms to more favorable markets in countries not eligible for the shipments, a violation of the contracts the importers had with the Agriculture Department.

Since discovery of the deal, the department has tightened its regulations requiring the buyers to prove the commodities reached their proper destination. The buyers must provide bonds to assure compliance.

Caution Eclipse

state. The complete phase should be over appproximately 5:30 p. m.

The last major eclipse visible in the state was in 1959, the next will be in 1970.

A special report by the Associated Press warns that a few careless seconds during Saturday afternoon could damage eyes permanently.

The carelessness could come in looking at the eclipse of the sun without proper protection.

The National Society for the Prevention of Blindness takes the position that there is no safe way to look directly at the eclipse. It urges indirect viewing. Other eye specialists say a direct look can be safe, but only if the filter protecting your eyes is dense enough.

All warn against using sunglasses or a piece of smoked glass. Welders' goggles vary so much they also are not endorsed generally.

No Remedy Either

Some astronomers recommend looking through three thicknesses of black and white film which has been fully exposed to daylight and then developed to maximum density. The Society for the Prevention of Blindness disagrees, saying everyone may not follow these directions well enough.

The great danger is that the retina, or screen of the eye, will be burned by infra-red or heat rays from the sun. There is no pain, but the burn can scar the retina, and this may create a black spot in central vision at whatever the eye looks at.

There is no remedy.

Handyman Loses Life in Blaze At Area Colony

An itinerant laborer, identified only as George Ames, lost his life shortly before midnight as fire of undetermined origin swept through a frame building on the property of Jacobs Bungalow Colony, Dairyland, near Greenfield Park.

Ellenville State Police said the man, employed at the Colony as a handyman had been in the area since July 12 and during that time had held two other jobs.

Coroner Arthur C. Chipp, Kerhonkson, said the man, whose identification was tentative according to troopers, was last seen alive at about 11 p. m. Thursday as he was walking to the frame building which houses the water boiler for the colony. Ames, it was said, slept in the shack.

Shortly before midnight, the fire was discovered in the building and Woodburne Fire Company in command of Chief Gerald Frince, responded. The chief discovered the body of the victim after the fire was extinguished.

An unidentified guest at the Colony made a futile attempt to enter the building to rescue the lone occupant. He found the door locked.

Coroner Chipp gave a verdict of accidental death due to asphyxiation, and said it is believed that the victim came to Ulster County from Bath, N. Y.

Ulster, Others Direct Ministries To State Migrants

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—Church-sponsored ministries in two areas of the state are directing special attention to former migrant laborers who have settled in the state, the State Council of Churches reports.

At the same time, ministries to migrant farm laborers in 20 counties are being conducted this summer by 22 chaplains and program directors, five teams of college students and hundreds of volunteers, the Rev. Charles W. Ackley, the council's director of the migrant ministry, said.

In southern Ulster County, the Rev. Vernie L. Bolden has been engaged to serve ex-migrants on a year-round basis and also to be minister to seasonal workers who come to that Hudson Valley area for the apple harvest.

At Corning, the Rev. David N. Jones, pastor of the Friendship Baptist Church, is working with the Steuben area migrant committee on plans for a new ministry to settled migrants near Prattsburg, Steuben County.

Rain Welcomed

all areas, except Long Island and the Southern Tier. The dryness has been especially severe in Western New York.

The Weather Bureau said this year's rainfall pattern closely resembled that of 1962, when many crops were ruined by persistent drought.

There has been no crop destruction so far this year, the Agriculture Department said, but yields are expected to be affected. The Weather Bureau's long-range forecast is for heavy rainfall sometime between mid-July and mid-August.

"Let's hope we're right," meteorologist Ernest Johnson said.

State Conservation Department officials said there was no immediate fire danger in the state's woodlands.

In Jefferson County, however, the county fire coordinator declared a state of forest fire emergency last Saturday because of prolonged dryness. The order bans outdoor fires unless permission is secured from a local fire chief.

Claim Sabotage

By MALCOLM W. BROWNE

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — Buddhist leaders in blockaded pagodas rejected any immediate truce today with the South Vietnamese government and charged that lesser officials have sabotaged President Ngo Dinh Diem's conciliation efforts.

The chief monks said they would "prefer to die rather than let our belief in government good faith be destroyed by reality once more."

The Buddhist note to the president, a Roman Catholic, came in response to a broadcast plea Diem made Thursday night for a settlement.

Financial and Commercial

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market continued to drift lower in quiet trading early this afternoon with foreign issues still off on balance, but some steadying.

Confusion still reigned in Wall Street regarding President Kennedy's proposals for taxing of Americans on purchase of foreign securities.

Stock market experts described most of the damage to prices resulting from the Kennedy proposals as psychological.

Stock markets in Canada and overseas still were reacting —in some cases drastically —to the Kennedy proposals.

In New York, most losses of key stocks were slight, but a few sharp declines by blue chips dragged at the averages.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was down to a moderate loss of .5 at 266.3 with industrials off .9, rails off .4, and utilities off .2.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was down .304 to 692.86.

Among the big foreign stocks, Royal Dutch was under pressure, losing nearly a point. Unilver N. V. fell more than a point while its British counterpart, Unilver ltd edged to the upside.

A drop of more than 2 by Du Pont depressed the averages. Also influential in this respect were fractional losses by Jersey Standard, American Telephone, General Motors, U.S. Steel, Santa Fe, and Southern Pacific.

Jones & Laughlin reported higher earnings and gained a point. Virginia-Carolina Chemical spurted another 3 points.

Tobaccos staged a moderate rally with Liggett & Myers up nearly a point.

IBM and Polaroid were off about 1 each.

Prices on the American Stock Exchange were mixed.

Storm Curtails Power, Causes . . .

out power for some time. The New Paltz area was also affected and crews from the Newburgh office were called in to clear the area. Service in the Kingston office area was restored by 7:30 p. m. with the assistance of emergency crews summoned from Catskill and Poughkeepsie. The area serviced through the Newburgh office was not cleared of trouble for some time later.

One transmission line in the Bloomington area was knocked out when a tree fell on it but service was not interrupted when a feed-back line went into operation.

Joseph Benjamin, Kingston manager, reported the storm struck at approximately 3:30 p. m. and lasted for from 15 to 20 minutes with high winds and heavy electrical discharges. Many trees were uprooted and numerous local services knocked out.

Back Co. Shuts Down

In Kingston the J. B. Back cigar plant on Wilbur Avenue closed down early due to a local power failure. There were other isolated interruptions caused by tree limbs falling over wires.

In the Creek Locks area several chimneys were damaged.

Four persons were injured at about 3:45 p. m. Thursday when a strong gust of wind overturned a house-trailer that fell on a 1961 sports car near the center of the Kingston-Rhinecliff Bridge.

Traffic Bottlenecked

Traffic on the bridge was bottlenecked for some time until vehicles were rerouted as the overturned house-trailer and sports car were removed and the injured taken by Doctor's Ambulance Service to Benedictine Hospital.

Ulster Hose Co. went to the scene and stood by until the bridge was cleared.

State Police reported the Thunderbird was operated by Mrs. Edna F. O'Neil, 53, of Route 1, Box 458, Kingston, and a 1957 tractor hauling the house-trailer was driven by John Edward Dillard, 25, of 1990 New Scotland Avenue, Slingerlands.

According to the report of Trooper C. R. Larson of the Kingston sub-station, Mrs. O'Neil was driving west on the bridge and the tractor was traveling east en route from Newburgh to Hudson, when suddenly a strong wind swept across the river span during a shower.

Forced by Wind

The force of the wind caused the house-trailer owned by John Malasky of Claverack, to veer to the eastbound lane where it toppled on the sports car in which the two women were riding. As the trailer rolled over the tractor upset on the bridge. Injured and taken to Benedictine Hospital were: Mrs. O'Neil, who suffered partial amputation of the middle finger of her left hand and bruises; Mrs. Joan Muller, 55, of Box 77A, Saugerties, a passenger in the O'Neil car, who received lacerations and abrasions of the left forearm; Dillard, who was treated for a fracture and dislocation of the left wrist, and Frank Dillard, 3, son of the tractor driver, who received minor injuries, according to reports.

Cows Under Tree

Seven Brown Swiss dairy cows were instantly killed by lightning as they sought shelter from a heavy rainstorm Thursday afternoon on Pine Farm, owned by the Smiley Brothers about three miles outside of New Paltz.

Gerow Smiley, one of the farm owners, said the seven cows were in a herd of 40 to 45 head of cattle at the time. The cows killed were directly under a large ash tree when lightning struck the tree, shot down the trunk of the tree and split a large rock at the base of the tree.

The other cows were gathered in the immediate area but escaped being hit by the lightning bolt.

Smiley said the family had operated the farm about 90 years and this is the first time such an incident has occurred.

Phone Service Hit

Jack Lebherz, district manager for the New York Telephone Company, reported wet cables caused disruption in service in the High Falls and Rosendale area affecting approximately 100 customers for between three and four hours before service was restored.

therefore coming under both federal and state jurisdiction.

A thorough preliminary investigation has been conducted by investigators for the school authorities in cooperation with special agents of the telephone company, which has resulted in the development of certain suspects believed to be connected with the illegal wiretap installation, District Attorney Corwin said.

On July 15, 1963, the results and certain physical evidence was turned over to the Ulster County District Attorney for the purpose of bringing the investigation to a prompt conclusion.

Let Growth Issues Supplement Pension

Q—"My wife and I own a block of W. T. Grant common and also Toledo Edison. What do you think of these issues as growth stocks? We are retired and have enough pension to live on, I hope." H. B.

A—I echo that hope and wish you a long and pleasant retirement.

Since your pension is presumably fixed at a certain stated level, it is very important, I think, that you should hold some good growth issues. These are a reasonably good hedge against future inflationary pressures, which could seriously reduce the purchasing power of any fixed pension.

I believe that Toledo Edison is satisfactory for that purpose but that Grant is not. The latter is a respected member of the highly competitive variety chain business, and is a good income provider rather than a growth stock.

For your purpose, I would prefer to hold Corn Products.

Q—"We have series G savings bonds that are due now. We would like to put the proceeds into U. S. Treasury 4's due Feb. 1, 1980, which you mentioned recently. Your column said they were selling for less than 100, but we checked locally and were told that they would cost over 100 and that they were not generally available to the public." R. H.

A—I'm afraid that you were unintentionally misinformed. U. S. Treasury Bonds and notes are available to anyone who has the money to buy them.

My most recent quotation shows a price of 99.20 bid and 99.24 asked for Treasury 4 per cent bonds due February, 1980.

Your Series G bonds carry no automatic extension and receive no interest after maturity, so they should be turned in promptly for redemption. When you receive the proceeds, you can buy Treasury bonds through almost any large bank or brokerage house.

Arrest Ellenville Man in Slashing NearMohonkLake

Accused of slashing another youth during a reported argument near Mohonk Lake early Thursday, Martin Paulsun, 22, of Center Street, Ellenville, was arrested by State Police BCI officers on a second degree assault charge.

According to reports of BCI Investigators Charles Teelon and Michael Mahoney, Ellenville, Paulsun is accused of cutting Thomas Simms, about 20, of the Granit Hotel, Kerhonkson, with a knife.

Troopers said Simms was taken to Veterans Memorial Hospital, Ellenville, where six sutures were taken to close a chest laceration.

Authorities reported that Simms and a group of other youths were in the vicinity of Mohonk Lake when Paulsun and others appeared and an argument ensued, during which Paulsun allegedly slashed Simms.

Paulsun was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Herbert Poppel, Town of Wawarsing, and waived preliminary examination, troopers said. Paulsun was ordered held for grand jury action.

Bonds Totaling $1.4 Million Set On Demonstrators

CHARLESTON, S.C. (AP) — Bonds totaling nearly $1.4 million have been placed against Negro demonstrators arrested during nearly six weeks of antisegregation activity here. Negro leaders viewed the bond assessments as an attempt to break the demonstrations which have occurred almost daily since June 9.

Magistrate George T. Runey added to the total Thursday when he set bonds totaling $690,000 for 68 Negroes arrested on riot charges.

The 68 were arrested Tuesday night, when six policemen and a fireman were injured, some by bricks thrown by Negroes demonstrating in front of the Charleston News and Courier Building.

Runey ordered the Rev. I. DeQuincey Newman, state field secretary for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and James Blake, an NAACP youth director, to post bail of $15,000 each. The other 66 were held under $10,000 bonds.

Negro protest leaders had pledged property to cover bonds of more than $700,000 placed against some 600 arrested in previous demonstrations.

Beef Up Rights Program Reuther Asks of Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — Walter P. Reuther urged Congress today to strengthen President Kennedy's civil rights program.

Among other things, he suggested direct payment of damages to persons discriminated against in public facilities.

"Not only the patron but the public-spirited proprietor will benefit from an enforceable public accommodiations measure," Reuther told a House Judiciary subcommittee.

Strong First Step

Reuther, president of the AFL-CIO United Auto Workers, said the President's proposals provided "a strong first step" towards guaranteeing "all Americans equality in law and equality in fact."

He told the congressmen in his prepared statement:

"Your committee cannot do less than he has asked; we urge it to do more."

Among other proposals which Reuther said the group should add to the President's seven-point civil rights package were:

1. A federal fair employment practices commission;
2. Federal voting registrars "who will make the right to vote an American reality";
3. Broad authorization for the attorney general to "protect all constitutional rights of Negroes"; and
4. An immediate start in all school districts on desegregation.

Others in Recess

The Judiciary subcommittee hearings, which began shortly after Kennedy submitted his program June 19, marked the only congressional action on the civil rights front today. The Senate Commerce and Judiciary committees are in recess until next week.

In his vigorous backing of the public accommodations proposal, which would outlaw discrimination in privately owned businesses serving the public, Reuther stressed the need for "a strong bill (that) will let those who open their facilities to everyone, do so with confidence that others will have to do likewise.

"Toward this end, we would urge that the committee consider, in addition to the sanctions now in the bill, providing that anyone who has been wrongfully excluded from a public facility be entitled to recover a flat sum in damages."

"Discrimination in public facilities has been a national disgrace for far too long," Reuther said. "By ending it now, by protecting every human being from Maine to California against the colossal indignity of a refusal of service, the 88th Congress will only be catching up at long last with the 44th Congress."

The Congress passed a smilar law in 1875, but it was declared unconstitutional by the U.S. Supieme Court in 1883.

Rosendale Rally Includes Donkey Baseball July 26

Active Hose Company No. 1, Village of Rosendale Fire Company announced that an exhibition and donkey baseball game has been scheduled for 8 p. m. Friday, July 26, 1963 at the Sportsmen's Park Field, Rosendale.

A contract has been signed, with the Buckeye Donkey Baseball Company of Columbus, Ohio. The donkey baseball game will be played under the lights, at the Sportmen's Park Field. Proceeds of the game, will go solely for firematic purposes, and assisting the fire company's finances, for the purpose of purchasing fire equipment.

The ball game has been scheduled in conjunction with the Rosendale Chamber of Commerce's "Rosendale Rally", which will feature four days of activities, commencing July 25, with a block dance on James Street, the donkey ball game on Friday evening and on Saturday, July 27, the annual Miss Rosendale Contest. The program concludes with a championship invitational swimming meet, on July 28, at Williams Lake. Also featured during the days, will be an educational tour, conducted by Arthur F. Mulligan, of the Town of Rosendale's Historical attractions, cement quarries and cement industry.

Justifiable Homicide Is Verdict on Death

MARION, Ark. (AP)—The death of a 17-year-old Negro shot by a group of white citizens and sheriff's deputies after a woman said he molested her daughter was ruled justifiable homicide Thursday.

Coroner T. H. McGough, who conducted the inquest, said there was no testimony as to who fired the bullet which killed Andrew Lee Anderson of nearby Vincent, Ark., Wednesday.

The mother testified she saw a Negro molesting her eight-year-old daughter on a lawn near her home in Marion. She said he ran and she started driving down the street yelling for help.

Several white men and sheriff's deputies chased Anderson into a bean field, where he was shot in the leg with a high-powered rifle. The bullet severed an artery.

Undercover Talks Held On 4th Gotham Jetport

NEW YORK (AP)—Top city officials are quietly and favorably considering a proposal to build the fourth jetport for the metropolitan area in lower New York harbor between Staten Island and New Jersey, the New York Herald Tribune said today.

A seven-mile stretch of shallows would be filled in "to accommodate the giant facility," the story said.

The area, known as Old Orchard Shallows, is off the eastern shore of Staten Island and the northern shore of New Jersey from South Amboy to Keansburg.

Meteorites are composed of iron alloys, mainly nickel-iron and stones made of silicate materials.

SEA TRAFFIC BOOMS — Eight liners are berthed along the Hudson river in New York City before sailing at peak of the midsummer season. From bottom are the Independence, Leonardo da Vinci, Atlantic, Olympia, France, Queen Mary, Hanseatic and Argentina.

To Arraign Duo Monday in N.Y. On Spy Charges

NEW YORK (AP)—A man and woman accused of spying for the Soviet Union were brought here from Washington Thursday night to answer an espionage conspiracy indictment.

The couple, whose identities have not been disclosed, will be arraigned Monday in Brooklyn before Federal District Judge Jacob Mishler.

The arrested pair have been using the names of two citizens, Robert K. Baltch and Joy Ann Baltch.

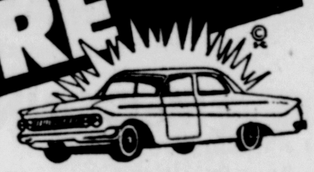

Federal Judge Charles C. McLaughlin in Washington ordered them sent here after U.S. Commissioner Sam Wertleb established that they were the same pair named in the grand jury indictment returned in Brooklyn.

Indicted with them earlier this week were a Russian born United Nations employes and his wife—Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Egorov. The Egorovs are awaiting arraignment here.

Mallory Grove Again Discussed At Town Board

The Mallory Grove project, a phase of the township's recreational setup which is periodically dusted off and exposed to prove its existence, was up for discussion again at the Town Board's July meeting.

In a letter signed by Mrs. Alvin Moscowitz, president of the Woodstock League of Women Voters, the town supervisor was informed that Mrs. Margaret Wetterau and Mrs. Sylvia Horsey, League observers, had investigated Mallory Grove to assess its condition this year.

Not too much damage had been done to the grove, the observers reported. Only one table was broken. Some rusty equipment was too evident. The sign marking the grove had come down. Otherwise, the report concluded, the area was as lovely as ever.

Other Suggestions

A couple of other minor observations highlighted the League report. It was noted that several boys carrying guns had been seen tramping through the area. The possibility of posting the land was immediately raised. A profusion of poison ivy was also also observed and further spraying was recommended.

Supervisor Molyneaux took a dim view of posting the grove. He felt it was not feasible since it would necessitate regulation of visitors to an impractical degree. He also said that the poison ivy had been given what was considered a lethal dose but additional spraying would be done.

The rusty equipment mentioned in the report is on water district property.

Needed — One Hammer

As for the sign which came down, Councilman Gottlob Wagner ruefully observed that it had been built to "last 20 years!" Mrs. Horsey quickley assured him she was certain it was not his fault and felt sure that if she and Mrs. Wetterau had a hammer with them, they could easily have restored the sign to its proper status. It was promised that the hammer would be made available to them.

Reporting on work that has been done at the grove, Supervisor Molyneaux said borings had been made for water for some future time. He said Mrs. Van Buren had generously offered to donate money to make Mallory Grove more useful and that ultimately the entire tract adjacent to the park would be made available to the town. Mrs. Van Buren's offer was rejected for the present on the grounds that the town would prefer spending what it could and waiting until there were expenditures the town could less afford.

Red Barn Slates Annual Exhibit

The Red Barn, a century old, still maintaining its original charm and atmosphere, is being put in readiness for the 14th annual Antiques Show and Sale on Aug. 1, 2, 3 and 4, Louise Bolton has announced.

The show will again have about 25 sealers displaying authentic antiques, such as primitives, pine and maple furniture. Chimes, glass, antique jewelry, old silver, art glass, cooper and brasswares, iron toys, guns, books, and many other items too numerous to list will be on display.

The show, which has established a nationwide reputation for interest and beauty, is a "must" on most antiques collectors and dealers lists. Refreshments will be on sale in the horse shed and are free for children accompanied by an adult. Parking facilities are ample and supervised.

This event promises to be one of the most interesting of the season for those collecting antiques, as well as for persons who appreciate the old and the beautiful. The public is invited to meet the interesting dealers and talk over problems with them, while also browsing and whiling away a few hours away from the hustle and bustle of the outside world.

Helen Turck New Math Supervisor

Mrs. Helen Turck has been appointed part-time elementary mathematics supervisor with a $500 increase in salary for 1963-64 in the Onteora Central Schools District.

Boad of Education approval to Suprintendent Sullivan's request was given at the July meeting.

In a note to the board, Superintendent Sullivan pointed out that under the Board of Cooperative Services, $3,000 was budgeted for a part-time math supervisor and $6,000 for a part-time math coordinator.

Jack Clifford, who was to be the math coordinator is leaving BOCES to become affiliated with Prof. Max Baberman at the University of Illinois. A replacement has been hired for Clifford and Mrs. Turck was offered the position of math supervisor by BOCES. The BOCES request, said Dr. Sullivan, will give the district the services of Mrs. Turck for the coming year as a half-day session elementary teacher and in addition, her services as an elementary math supervisor in the district.

At the present time, Dr. Sullivan said, the position of math coordinator does not exist in the OCS district.

Faculty Appointments

Faculty appointments effective Sept. 1 included: Mrs. Susan Wallace, elementary, $5800; Miss Annaliesse Altmann, German, $6900; Daniel Klein, English, $6,500; Anthony S. Balanger, English, $5300. Summer teaching assignments pro rated at 1/200th of 1963-64 contract per diem included: English department, Miriam Smith, 8 weeks; Guidance department — Mollie Gersoni, Thomas Fickus, Charles Britting, 4 weeks each; Library—Mary Gormley, Patricia Welden, two weeks each; Elementary—Mary Cawston, Alleda Ellsworth, Jo-Ann Bianco, 4 weeks.

Richard Johnson and Frank Izzo, who lacked one unit each to graduate with their regular class at Onteora High, were granted diplomas upon satisfactory completion of required work. Jean Orton, who attended Onteora for three years then moved to California, was also granted a New York State high school diploma.

The resignation of John O'Grady, social studies, was accepted. Miss Barbara Devoti and Mrs. Mildred Holt were given clerical appointments at a starting salary of $2700 per year. Upon passing the Civil Service typing exam, both applicants will be automatically raised to $2920 yearly, raise in grade retroactive to date of typing examination.

Wilson Invited To Discuss Park At Wittenberg

The Committee for the Preservation of the Wittenberg Valley has announced that it has invited Assemblyman Kenneth L. Wilson and State Senator E. Ogden Bush to attend a meeting on Aug. 10. The group opposes plans to build a state-operated park in the area.

In the letter of invitation to Wilson, the committee president, Eric M. Rickard, said:

"The subject of the meeting is your plan for a Wittenberg Valley recreational area, proposed in your press conference as reported in The Kingston Freeman on May 28, and our reasons for opposing the plan."

The invitation also suggested that if Assemblyman Wilson was unable to attend on Aug. 10, the meeting could be held at his convenience.

The letter to Sen. Bush, chairman of the Senate Conservation Committee, said the committee "felt sure you will be interested in our subject."

Elect Gilligan

In their most recent meeting, the committee announced the election of Edmund B. Gilligan of Bearsville as vice president. Gilligan is the well known author and noveltist and his short stories appear frequently in the Saturday Evening Post. He was for many years Rod and Gun editor of the New York Herald-Tribune and is an ardent conservationalist.

Gilligan was chairman of the organizational meeting of the Committee for the Preservation of the Wittenberg Valley.

Following several committee reports on various aspects of the proposed state park, it was decided to send the invitations to Wilson and Bush.

In addition to previous letters received from the Conservation Department, it was announced that Conservation Commissioner Harold G. Wilm had written Roger B. Strout, treasurer of the committee and his mother, Mrs. Louise Strout, reiterating the department's earlier position that the "proposal is of local origin and has not as yet been given any study by this department." In his press conference, Assemblyman Wilson had indicated the park project would be financed wholly by the state.

Development Planned

The committee is continuing to keep Commissioner Wilm advised of its activities, Rickard said.

Grover Colberg reported that approximately 80 acres bordering his property on the east, and extending near Wittenberg Road to the Little Beaver Kill, is owned by Arthur Briedis. Colberg reported that before the announcement of the proposed play site Briedis told him he planned to build year-round homes and sell them as the valley slowly developed. Since the park announcement, Briedis has informed Colberg that he favors the proposed plan and that he is planning, with a developer, to build summer houses or "second homes," as they are often called on half-acre plots.

Additional persons present at the meeting were: Wallace Klitgaard, Bearsville; and Chris Clausen, Chris Clausen, Jr., Edward Elmore and Frank J. Coyle, land owners and summer residents of the valley for many years.

Members of the committee requested additional copies of the petition for circulation. The petition may be signed at the home of any member of the committee.

Jaycees Granted Rec Field Use For Hunt Circus

The town board has granted the Woodstock Jaycees permission to use the Woodstock Recreation Field, Aug. 16-17, when the Hunt Brothers Circus comes to town under Jaycee sponsorship.

There was one stipulation in the board's approval. The Jaycees must clean up the field after the performances and this they promised to do.

It was noted that homeowners living near the recreation field were offended and irritated by the odors after last year's circus. This brought a quick promise from Harry Brown, advance man of Hunt Brothers, who said he would personally clean it up to everyone's satisfaction if the Jaycees would furnish a truck.

A request was also made for a light and more rigid zoning provisions in front of the fire house and the supervisor promised to do his best to take care of the matter. He also reported that Adolph Heckeroth promised the siren would be removed by the end of the week.

Republican members of the town board of election recommended by Assemblyman Kenneth L. Wilson were approved as follows: District 1 — Marian Gordon, Anita Stallforth; District 2 — Natalie Sonnenberg, Olive Shultis; District 3—Edna DeWitt, Mrs. Neil S. McLeod.

The salary of the town machine equipment operator was raised from $2 to $3 pursuant to new Civil Service wage recommendations. The raise was made retroactive to May 1.

Councilman William West, Jr. asked the press to thank the many people who helped fill in the area back of the skating pond at the recreation field to provide better skating next winter. The civic-minded group included Victor Shultis, Owen Roberts, William Van Kleeck, William Harder, Robert Hastie, William West Sr., Robert Smith, Duncan Wilson, Danny Kleine and Raymond Cocks. Although the work was done some time ago, no public recognition was ever given the group.

Capitol News In Brief

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the news from Washington:

CRIME RAMPAGE: The national crime rate is increasing four times as fast as the population, the FBI reports.

Last year it climbed to a new high. For the first time more than two million serious offenses were recorded — almost four a minute.

The statistics were contained in FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover's report Thursday to Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy.

Last year's crime rate topped 1961's by 6 per cent. Every crime category but murder increased. Murder dropped 2 per cent.

The trend, the FBI said, was 13 per cent higher than the average crime rate over the three years of 1959-1961.

Statistically, among every 100,000 Americans, there were 4.5 murders, 8.8 rapes, 51.3 robberies, 75.1 assaults and 480.4 burglaries.

BUDGET DEFICIT: A sharp increase in sales of government-held mortgages was a major factor in slicing the budget deficit for fiscal 1963, Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon said Thursday.

President Kennedy announced Wednesday the deficit for the 12 months which ended June 30 was $6.2 billion, about $2.6 billion below estimates made by the administration in January.

Dillon and Budget Director Kermit Gordon said the sales of the government - owned mortgages were $800 million more than had been anticipated.

EARNINGS-JOBS: Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz has expressed satisfaction with statistics showing weekly earnings of factory workers passed the $100 mark last month and employment hit 70 million.

"These are impressive figures," Wirtz said in announcing the statistics Thursday. "They are not only sources for some satisfaction in themselves; they are indicative of the continual improvement of the over-all economy."

Factory workers' average earnings for June were $100.61. The previous record set in May was $99.47.

Non-farm employment rose 600,000 to 56.8 million, an increase of 110,000 over the normal seasonal gain.

Unemployment in June totaled 4.8 million, a gain of 800,000 over May.

Decision Up to Scranton

HARRISBURG, (AP) — A final decision on a proposed solution to the school subsidy-teacher salary problem was left with Gov. Scranton today.

A seven-member committee of legislators and administrators named by the governor to work on the problem reached agreement Thursday.

They declined to comment on the plan until the governor saw it, but it reportedly would boost salaries of teachers in service by $300 a year—compared with the $200 annual increases in present law—and raise starting salaries in two steps from $3,600 to $4,500. The first step would be to $4,200 this year.

Names In The News

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

SEVILLE, Spain (AP) — John Fulton, 31, Philadelphia-born bull fighter, won two fights in Seville Thursday and was invested as a full-fledged matador. Fulton took two thrusts to kill his first bull and three thrusts to dispose of the second one.

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Actor Marlon Brando will remain indefinitely in St. John's Hospital, where he is being treated for recurrence of a kidney infection.

Brando's physician, Dr. Robert Kositchek, said the 39-year-old Brando's condition was "about the same."

TEHRAN, Iran (AP) — U.S. Chief Justice Earl Warren was received in Tehran by the shah of Iran and Empress Farah. Also present were Mrs. Warren and U.S. Ambassador and Mrs. J.C. Holmes.

NEW YORK (AP) — Actress Shelley Winters, just returned from Moscow, said Russian teenagers treat movie stars about the same as young Americans do.

"They practically tear your clothes off to get an autograph," she said.

Miss Winters attended the Moscow Film Festival.

Interest Conflict Indirectly Causes Loss of 100 Jobs

UTICA, N.Y. (AP)—The chairman of the board of the American Emblem Co. is Willis V. Daugherty—

Daugherty also is a member and former executive director of the New York State Job Development Authority—

The authority's job is to help new industry establish in New York State and help existing industry expand, thereby providing more jobs—

American Emblem was forced to relocate because it was in the path of a projected arterial highway in suburban New Hartford—

It asked the Job Development Authority for a loan, and was rejected—

Thursday, Daugherty announced that the company had beeen sold to the Worcester Stamped Metal Co.—of Massachusetts.

The result — the New Hartford plant eventually will be abandoned.

Lost — 110 jobs in New York State.

The state agency rejected the loan, Daugherty said, because of a possible conflict of interest.

More Children Are Available Now for Adoption

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — There are now more children available for adoption than there are couples wanting to adopt them, a reversal of the previous situation, the State Welfare Department reports.

The department said Thursday that factors contributing to the increased number of children available are:

An increasing birth rate; a new law permitting adoption of children permanently neglected by their natural parents; state help in resolving legal problems that previously hindered adoptions; an increase in the number of unmarried mothers placing babies for adoption.

Approximately 5,000 children from infants to teen-agers, will be available for adoption this year.

Study Off-Track Bet

NEW YORK (AP)—City Comptroller Abraham D. Beame says Mayor Robert F. Wagner's administration is studying the possibility of holding a citywide, informal vote on off-track betting.

A citywide referendum would have no legal effect.

Many state Democratic leaders long have advocated legalized off-track betting as a means of raising revenue. Republican leaders in the GOP-controlled Legislature have opposed such a plan.

Beame criticized Assembly Speaker Joseph F. Carlino for "silencing the voice of the people" by not permitting a statewide referendum on off-track betting.

Two Hurt in Fatal Bus Crash Go Home

An upstate mother and daughter, two of six persons injured in a fatal bus accident on the State Thruway on the afternoon of July 11, were released from Kingston Hospital Thursday afternoon and taken to their home in Watervliet by Doctor's Ambulance Service.

They were Mrs. Blanche Soucy, 2, of 609 First Street, Watervliet, and her daughter, Barbara, 14. Both are recuperating from injuries suffered when the southbound Greyhound bus left the Thruway about four miles south of Kingston and rolled down a 15-foot embankment.

Robert Heller Jr., 30, of Carlstadt, N. J., operator of the bus, was killed, and four other persons were injured.

Why is it people who don't know what's good for them always know what's best for the country?

DISCUSS PLANS FOR VOLS PARLEY — The Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association convention committee in session at Saugerties this week discusses final arrangements for the annual convention and parade Thurs., Friday and Saturday of next week at Saugerties. The annual dinner and entertainment will be held Thursday, the convention session with election of offices will be held Friday, July 26 and the parade is scheduled for 2 p. m. Saturday, July 27. The meeting here in the Exempt Firemen's Association rooms of Saugerties Municipal Building includes (l-r) seated, Charles Granwehr, secretary; George W. Gardiner, chairman; Edwin Van Wart, treasurer; standing, Howard Myer, parade chairman; Arthur S. Van Benschoten, refreshments; Charles Meiswinkle, co-chairman in charge of publicity; Raymond Teitter, fund raising, and Philip Breithaupt, dinner chairman. (Freeman photo)

Slated July 27 at Saugerties

Vols Plan Greatest Display Of Apparatus, Men in Parade

The largest display of fire fighting men and equipment ever exhibited in an Ulster County firemen's convention parade will be in the line of march Saturday, July 27, stepping off at 2 p. m. from Barclay Heights, Saugerties.

More than 3 fire companies will display apparatus and marching units and 7 musical marching units will provide cadence for the marchers. The six division parade will assemble 1:30 p. m. at Barclay Heights.

Howard Myer, parade chairman, in a report to UC Vols board of directors, said the parade route will be 2½ miles from Barclay Heights to Cantine Memorial Field, Washington Avenue Extension.

George W. Gardner, convention chairman urged business men and homeowners to display flags and bunting along the parade route.

Harry Desmond, widely-known volunteer fireman, past chief of Saugerties Fire Department and perennial umpire at local baseball games, will be the grand marshal.

The annual dinner of the association will be served at 7 p. m. Thursday at four village churches—First Congregational, Saugerties Methodist, Saugerties Reformed, and Atonement Lutheran.

Following the dinner at 9 p. m. a program of entertainment including four popular Broadway and TV acts will be presented at Saugerties Municipal Auditorium.

Next Friday night the convention will be in session at the municipal auditorium starting at 8 p. m. Election of officers will be held.

Committee Lists Grand Marshal Of Vols Parade

HARRY DESMOND

A former Saugerties fire chief, widely-known volunteer fireman and baseball enthusiast, Harry Desmond, has received another assignment as grand marshal of a Saugerties parade.

Ulster County Volunteer Firemans Association convention committee named Desmond as grand marshal for its convention parade to be held in Saugerties Saturday, July 27. The parade starts from Barclay Heights at 2 p. m.

Desmond, 80, a resident of the village, was grand marshal of the 1961 July 4 parade in Saugerties. A resident of the village since 1917, he is still active in Little League baseball and was instrumental in the formation of the league in Saugerties some years ago. He has served as umpire-in-chief for nearly 15 years, very rarely missing a game.

His interest in the sport stems from his youth when he played semi-pro ball in the local area and in the farm system of the Cincinnati Reds.

Desmond served as fire department chief in 1931. Thirty years later, in 1961, his son, Robert Desmond served as chief.

Deputy marshals are Saugerties Postmaster Edmund U. Burhans, president of R. A. Snyder Fire Company, Saugerties; Valmore F. Carpenter, past chief of Malden-West Camp Fire Company; Atwater Valk of Centerville Fire Company, Charles Daley, UC Vols delegate of M-WC Fire Company, and Mervin Wiands of the Exempt Firemens Association, Saugerties.

The parade will assemble at Barclay Heights, Church and Barclay Streets and Simmons Lane at 1:30 p. m. and will step off at 2 o'clock.

Dartball Loop Annual Meeting Slated Aug. 8

The annual meeting of Saugerties Dartball League will be held Thursday, Aug. 8 at Centerville Fire Hall.

The agenda will include election of officers and the granting of franchises to both existing and new teams who would like to join the league.

All teams must be represented at the meetings and prepared to pick up their franchise and pay annual league dues.

New teams wishing information about joining the league may contact League Secretary Barry Finger at 20 Elm Street, Saugerties.

Thousand Islands Tour Completed

Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Kealy who celebrated their 46th wedding anniversary.

Others on the tour were Catherine E. Gardner, Ellen McNelis, Nellie Jacobi, Nellie Nolan, Evelyn Kimble, Louise Boice, Mary Cook, Mrs. A. Terpening, Emely Valk, Elsie Oeser, Mrs. L. Carnright, and grandson; Mrs. Dunn and grandson; Margaret Dunn, Rita Rosner and son, Dorothy Miller, Nellie Husted, Laura Mickle, Margaret Wright, Ann Brown, Blanche Cotton, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Junker, Lillian Devaney, Mrs. George Small, Annie Singler, Mrs. M. Deller, Betty Szekeres, Millie Rosado, Ernest Waters, and hostess Mrs. Violet Rocklein. Leroy Thomas was the driver.

Church Notes

NEW PALTZ — The sermon topic at the New Paltz Reformed Church for Sunday, July 21 will be "The Art of Noticing." Service time for the summer is at 10 o'clock. Visitors and newcomers are always welcome to worship at the Reformed Church. Care nurseries are provided in the Church Education Building.

The teenage group will hold a Stone House Day Dance practice at 7:30 p. m. at the Education Building.

Library Fair

The recent Elting Memorial Library Fair was reportedly a great success, breaking all previous financial records. Receipts totaled approximately $1,516.50. The following served as booth chairmen: Mrs. Frank Elliott, Mrs. John Thoben, Mrs. Frank Hamilton, Mrs. Alvin Beatty, Mrs. Robert Clarkson, Mrs. Earl Stokes, Mrs. Bernard Bartz, Mrs. Edward Nauss, Miss Amy Hepburn, William Heidgerd, Mrs. Joseph McCarthy, and Mr. and Mrs. John Wyman. Explorer Scouts of Post 77 and members of the Jayncees prepared the fair grounds and dismantled the tables, booths and other equipment after the fair.

Area Activities

Mr. and Mrs. William Russell of Pine Tree Drive are the parents of a son, William Kirk, born July 6 at Kingston Hospital.

Mrs. Roy (Gertrude) Upright of 10 South Chestnut Street, will attend a music seminar to be held July 22 at the Hotel Manhattan in New York City. She is also taking graduate work at the New York College of Music, studying advanced counterpoint and advanced technique. Gertrude is a piano teacher and has for many years been accompanist for the firemen's minstrel shows and many other benefits.

Miss Henriette Wicks of South Oakwood Terrace, left for Lima, Peru, Saturday, July 13, where she will visit friends and former colleagues with whom she worked under the U. S. Foreign Aid Program (A.I.D.) from 1958 to 1962. While there she will also assist in a two-week workshop for teachers who are specializing in nursery-kindergarten education. This program of special education is the only one of its kind in Peru. It was set up in 1960 by financial assistance from the program in which Miss Wicks was working at the time, and in collaboration with the Peruvian Ministry of Education. Miss Wicks is a member of the Education Division of the university here.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hogle of 15 North Front Street, are the parents of a son, Richard Kenneth, born July 3.

A Teen-age Dance will be held at the Central School parking lot on Saturday, July 20, from 8 to 11 p. m. It will be sponsored by the New Paltz Recreation program, headed by Karen Rooney. Music will be furnished by the Cantells.

Driver Pays Fine

Richard Henry Perry, 19, of Box 187, Hurley, paid a $15 fine on a charge of being an unlicensed operator of a motor vehicle after a car owned by the Rev. Henry Perry of Hurley, was involved in an accident on Route 28 near the Big Scot store Thursday at 11:45 p. m. Perry reported he was traveling west on Route 28 and saw a guard rail which confused him with the white line on the pavement. The car struck the guard rail and the car was damaged about the right front side. Deputies Ronald Dietz and Ernest Ahlberg investigated and charged Perry with being an unlicensed operator. The fine was imposed by Justice Robert S. Stedge of Town of Kingston.

Newburgh Board Investigating Alleged Summer Football

With Fabulous Feigner

King and His Court Scheduled For Appearance Here, Aug. 13

Eddie Feigner and his original Four-Man Softball Team—one of the century's most amazing sports ensembles—will make their annual visit to Kingston on Tuesday, Aug. 13 at Dietz Stadium.

The internationally famous squad will meet an all-star squad recruited from the Kingston City League. The game will be sponsored by the Rosendale-Tillson American Legion Post.

A perennial favorite with Kingston fans, Feigner, one of the greatest pitchers in softball history, will be accompanied by the three old standbys—Mike Meilicke, Jerry Jones and Al Jackson.

The season of 1963 begins the 17th consecutive year of play of this fabulous foursome. In that time The King and His Court has played to millions of fans in most of the states, Canada and on many foreign tours. Amazing is the fact that the four men have been battling foes without replacement over the years. Feigner, the man with the rubberized arm, hurls every game and on Sunday he works afternoon and night tricks.

EDDIE FEIGNER

Phenomenal Record

At the start of the 1963 season, the four-man team faced a 160-game schedule. They boosted an all-time record of 2353 victories in games played with 132 losses and 26 tie games. In addition, the squad had found time to conduct 860 clinics and play 218 benefits.

Feigner's pitching record is on the phenomenal side. By the end of 1962 he had struck out 45,130 batters in his life for games pitched with the four-man team, as well as foe nine-man teams in his early days. He often pitches blindfolded for the Court and has struck out over 4,600 batters while blindfolded.

Feigner's overall lifetime pitching record is 2723 games won, 235 lost, 442 no-hit, no-run games and 755 shutouts. All these marks existed when the 1963 campaign began. Day-by-day Feigner is adding to the slate. Longest game pitched was 34 innings in which Eddie fanned 73, walked 19 and allowed 8 hits and won, 7-6. This is an amazing man and a great team.

Tickets are being sold by the American Legion post and are also available at Spada's Sport Shop, Potter Brothers and Maines Sports Shop.

Fornal Charged Having Players Report July 6

BY ED PALLADINO
Freeman Sports Staff

At this week's meeting of the Newburgh Board of Education, trustees of the board questioned an article which appeared on the sports page of the Newburgh Evening News on July 6.

The article called attention to a special meeting of 1963 football candidates.

The article states that Fornal had called a meeting of candidates that night (July 6) at the NFA field. "All boys planning to participate in junior high, junior varsity and varsity football at Newburgh Free Academy should report to the bleachers on the Academy Field," is the quote attributed to Coach Fornal in the newspaper.

Threatened Reprisal

The article further quotes the NFA coach that "those who do not attend this meeting will not be seriously considered this fall."

Superintendent Harold Monson said at the board meeting that if this alleged meeting took place, it was a breach of authority by the football coach. Dr. Monson said he would investigate the matter and will present a full report to the board at its July 30 meeting.

The matter was brought to a head by several trustees of the board, who said they knew nothing about the session except that they read it in the paper.

The State Dept. of Education this year issued a change in the original directive, which stated that football practice could not be held before Sept. 1. The change allows schools to begin pre-season conditioning for grid prospects one week earlier than Sept. 1, if the schools so desire. However, candidates are limited to only two hours a day and no drills are allowed.

When reached this morning by this reporter, Ccach Fornal said he had "no commeni" to make on the situation. He added that he had been instructed not to say anything but declined to say who had given the instruction.

The Newburgh coach said he has not been asked to attend the July 30 meeting of the board.

Efforts to reach Athletic Director Stan Hemingway were unsuccessful.

American Stars Defeat Rondout

Larry Crantz hurled a three-hitter and Bill Brady slammed a bases loaded double to pace the American Little League All-Stars of Kingston to a 2-0 triumph over Rondout Valley in a District tourney game Thursday evening.

Scores of the Kingston National-Woodstock and the Accord-Kerhonkson and Pine Bush games were not reported to this department.

Crantz had perfect control and fanned seven. Brady socked his double in the fifth inning. In the top of the frame, he made a nifty defensive play with the bases loaded to snuff out a Rondout rally.

The Americans will meet the Town of Uster on Saturday, 2 p. m. at the Kingston National Little League diamond.

Mrs. deLisio Leading Senior Golf by Stroke

Mrs. A. J. (Wiggie) de Lisio of Woodstock Country Club led the defending champion, Mrs. Gerald Hallenbeck of Catskill, by one stroke going into the second and final round of the Northwestern Women's Senior Golf Championship today.

Mrs. de Lisio, the current New York State and Ulster County seniors champion, carded a front nine 40 and came home with 38 for her pace setting score of 78. Mrs. Hallenbeck was out in 38 and back in 41 to trail by a stroke.

Tied for third place after the opening 18-hole round were Mrs. George Frank of the Albany Country Club and Mrs. Robert Kaufman of Colonie with 87s.

Other leading scorers included: Mrs. Russell Brown, Normanside, 88; Mrs. Duane Fuller, Ballston Spa, 89; Mrs. George Bryan, Columbia, 91; Mrs. Thomas Kennedy, Columbia, 92; Mrs. W. M. Gibbons, Normanside, 92; and Mrs. J. T. Bennett, Edison Club, 97.

State Champion Eliminated In Second Round of Tourney

WHITE PLAINS, N.Y. (AP)—Today was the day of reckoning so far as Dick Rooney's fate in the New York State Amateur Golf Championship was concerned.

The 28-year-old Clinton resident became the focal point of the 41st running of this classic Thursday, as he bumped out defending champion William Tryon of Elmira in the second round of match play.

Rooney, less than optimistic about his chances Thursday, said he had had his bag packed and was making plans to return home before he teed off. Today he meeets Peter Liebschutz of Rochester in the first of two scheduled 18-hole eliminations.

The tall Oberlin College graduate ousted Princeton man Tryon Thursday by winning the 17th hole to go one-up in a see-saw battle, that ended with double bogeys for each player on the 18th.

After winning, Rooney declared that Tryon was by far the better golfer, and also that his own caddie, John Tobias of nearby Elmsford, deserved a great deal of the credit for the win for coaching him on the tricky Knollwood Country Club greens.

Nevertheless, Rooney emerged as the top man in the head-to-head play, and thereby became the man to watch in today's 32-man field.

Rooney, who plays out of Hamilton College, where he is the assistant director of admissions, lives adjacent to the third green on the schoool's nine-hole course.

Among the survivors were seven-time champion Ray Billows of Staatsburg and four-time winner Tommy Goodwin of Rye. They were joined by 1961 king Don Allen of Rochester.

2nd Round Results

WHITE PLAINS, N.Y. (AP)—Results Thursday in the second round of the New York State Amateur Golf Tournament included:

Anthony Maragno, Gloversville, defeated Edward Hughes, Elmira, 3 and 1.

Walter Guca, Yorkville, defeated Robert Joslin, Batavia, 4 and 3.

Ronald Smiley, White Plains, defeated Lou Shipes, Ithaca, 6 and 4.

Dr. Rocco Impaglia, Auburn, defeated Arthur Conaty, West Nyack, 3 and 2.

Juvenile Event Draws Big Field

Another large field is expected for the $100,000-added Hollywood Juvenile Championship Saturday at Hollywood Park, and the management may have to split the 2-year-old event into two divisions again as in 1962.

The Juvenile, at six furlongs, and the $100,000-added Brooklyn Handicap at Aqueduct are the major stakes on the Saturday program.

A year ago when 222 were entered for the Hollywood Juvenile, it was split into two sections, each worth $75,000-added. They grossed $102,100 each, and J. K. Houssels, Nevada hotel man, collected $138,200. His Colts, Y Flash and Noti, each earned $69,100 by taking both sections.

There are 15 probable, and four possible starters Saturday, including Greentree Stable's Malicious, Clark and Radkovich's Wil Rad, Suisun Stable's Nevada Bin, and Harbor View Farm's Count Bud, an invader from New York.

Malicious beat Nevada Bin in the second division of the Howard Stakes last week, after Close By took the opening section.

Montpeller Farm's Mongo, upset by Decidedly last Saturday in the Monmouth Handicap, heads a field of eight or 10 expected for the 1¼-mile Brooklyn. Mongo carries 126 pounds as he seeks his fourth stakes victory of the year. Mrs. J. D. Alexander's Saidam, runner-up to Kelso in the Suburban July 4, has 112, the same as Greentree Stable's Cyrano, who won the Metropolitan May 30. Harbor View Farm's Garwol, second behind Beau Purple in the 1962 Brooklyn, goes with 111.

Masons, 35 Club, Rotary Win Babe Ruth League Contests

Brian Bach Fans 19 Batters, Hurls Two-Hit Shutout

Masons stayed in the battle for first place in the American division of the Babe Ruth league with a 5-0 shutout of Hurley Wednesday at Dietz Stadium.

In other league action, the 35 Club nipped the Elks, 5-3, and Rotary defeated the VFW, 3-1.

Brian Bach twirled a two-hitter for the Masons. He aided his cause with a double and single while teammate Pete Watzka clouted a triple.

Each fanned 19 batters in the seven innings, recording all but two of the outs via the strikeout route. Starter Joel Tomson was the loser.

35 Club spotted the Elks a three run burst in the opening frame and then rallied to clinch the decision. Vince Crantz was the victor and Charlie Lay lost it.

Lou Perry and Chip Grover doubled for the losers, who had eight safeties against three ffor the winning side.

Tom Salzman hit a bases loaded double in the second inning to drive in all the runs for Rotary. Ray Lindhorst was the winner on a three-hitter.

Tonight's slate has the Legion and VFW playing at Dietz Stadium and the Rotary playing the K of C at the Athletic Field. Both games will begin at 6 o'clock.

Two Tie With 71 In Women's Open

CINCINNATI (AP)—A girl with an ailing back and one who weighs in at only 95 pounds led the field today into the second round of the 1963 Women's National Open Golf Tournament.

They are Mary Mills, a 23-year-old blonde from Gulf Hills, Miss., and Clifford Ann Creed, a tiny 24-year-old brunette from Alexandria, La. Each had a 2-under-par 71 Thursday over the Kenwood Country Club's 6,444 yards of hilly terrain.

Far back in the field and threatened with elimination after today's round was defending champion Mrs. Murle Lindstrom of Sutton, Mass. Mrs. Lindstrom, who hasn't been playing regularly, had a 10-over-par 83.

It appeared it would take a two-day total of around 161 to survive the halfway mark cut in the field. Only the 40 low scorers and ties will be eligible for Saturday's final 36 holes.

The tournament, with a $9,000 purse, will pay $2,000 to the winner.

For the most part, the big name pros among the golfing gals will have their work cut out for them. Most of them were four strokes or more off the pace.

Two exceptions were Ruth Jessen of Bonsall, Calif., and Louise Suggs of Delray Beach, Fla. They, along with wise-cracking Judy Kimball of Sioux City, Iowa, were only one stroke behind with 72s.

Miss Mills, who says she is "considered a long hitter" hit 15 of the 18 greens in regulation figures but she hasn't been playing much because of an ailment in the lower lumbar region of her back.

"I still can't get the leverage I should have on my swing," she said.

Dallas-Tampa Girls in Finals

RIVER FOREST, Ill. (AP)—A girl who learned tennis from her father, and another who picked it up in public parks square off today in the semifinals of the National Clay Court Tournament.

Nancy Richey, 20, of Dallas was tutored for 12 years by her professional father, George. She reached the semifinals Thursday with an 11-9, 6-1 victory over defending champion Donna Floyd Fales of New York.

Judy Alvarez, 20-year-old Tampa, Fla., University physical education major who took up tennis in public parks five years ago after starring as a softball pitcher, upset America's No. 1 ace, Darlene Hard of Los Angeles, 8-6, 6-2.

In Friday's men's semifinals, defending champion and Wimbledon king, Chuck McKinley, meets unseeded Herbert Fitzgibbon, 21-year-old Princeton student from Garden City, N.Y.

McKinley moved up by downing his Trinity University (Texas) teammate, Butch Newman, 5-7, 7-5, 4-6, 6-4, 6-3 in a two-hour, 90 minute marathon.

Fitzgibbon defeated Cliff Buchholz of St. Louis, 3-6, 6-0, 6-4, 7-5.

Doping Scandal Stirs British

LONDON (AP)—British racing authorities called a top-level investigation today of sensational charges that Relko, the stroll-home winnner of the English Derby, was given a powerful booster dope.

Racing sources said the inquiry will be staged in London next Wednesday and that Relko's French trainer, Francois Mathet, has agreed to attend.

The Jockey Club, blue-blooded dictators of the British turf, refused any comment on the affair. This was taken by The Sporting Life, Britain's leading turf daily, as tacit admission that Relko was pepped up. The paper added:

"The effrontery of the dopers now has reached its ultimate zenith: they have beeen able to get at the Derby winner."

Relko, rated the best 3-year-old in Europe, walked off with the Epsom Derby May 29 by a long six lengths.

Exactly a month later he went to the gate in the $140,000 dollars Irish Derby at The Curragh as the 2-1 favorite. Seconds before the start of the race he was found to be lame and was withdrawn.

In both cases saliva swabs were taken for analysis to detect any doping.

Radatz Has Victory 11 In Relief

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Dick Radatz is a huge bruiser who overpowers the batters with his speed and strength.

Bill Dailey is a stringbean type who deceives the batters with his sneaky sidearm deliveries.

They don't look alike and they don't work alike, but they rate alike—in the upper echelon of American League relief pitchers. Each gave another strong performance Thursday in victories for Boston, Minnesota and Baltimore.

Radatz ran his record to a remarkable 11-1 with two scoreless innings as the Red Sox thumped the Kansas City Athletics 10-6. Dailey held New York hitless over the last three innings in the Twins' 9-3 rout of the front-running Yankees. And Miller won at Detroit, 8-6, on Joe Gaines' 11th-inning pinch double in the only other game on the league schedule.

Radatz received credit for the victory at Kansas City with his two-inning stint, in which he gave up one single and one walk.

Assault Rakow

The Red Sox rushed ahead with four runs in the first against Ed Rakow and scored three more in the fourth off rookie Dale Willis. But the A's scrapped back against Chet Nichols and Jack Lamabe with a spurt of extra-base hits, including two homers by Norm Siebern, and it was 7-6 after six.

Carl Yastrzemski and Roman Mejias gave Radatz more of a cushion with homers in the ninth.

Dailey protected right-hander Camilo Pascual's first victory since June 12 by holding the Yanks hitless the last three innings—and Rich Rollins made it a romp for the Twins with a two-run homer in the seventh and a three-run double in the eighth.

Miller, a wheelhorse who has pitched in 43 of the Orioles' 96 games, evened his record at 4-4 with the aid of key hitting by John Orsino and Gaines.

The Tigers raked Mike McCormick and Dick Hall for a 5-0 lead in the first three innings. Baltimore pecked away for a tie then Billy Bruton tripled in a run off Miller in the last of the eighth for a 6-5 Detroit edge.

But Orsino homered in the ninth knotting the score again. Gaines socked his two-run pinch double batting for Miller in the 11th, and George Brunet held off the Tigers in their last turn at bat. Rookie Bill Faul was the loser.

Dean-Perlman Bridge Winners

Dr. William Dean of Kingston and Dr. Paul Perlman of Woodstock combined for an excellent 68 per cent game on the East-West side of the Glenerie Bridge Club's Fractional point game. Morton Honig and Robert Yallum led the North-South with 63 per cent.

The runnersup were:

North-South: Miss Dorothy Maroon-Dr. John Olivet, 60 per cent; Milton Dubin-Stanley Kaplan, Kingston, 59 per cent; Dr. John Roberts, Kingston, and Arling Kalleberg, Mt. Marion, 54 per cent.

East-West: Dr. Habeeb Maroon-Joseph Pechloff, Kingston, 66 per cent; Mr. and Mrs. John Levy, Kingston, tied with Mrs. John Olivet and Andrew Dykes, Kingston, 53½ per cent.

Podres Key To Dodger Rise to Top

It is generally acknowledged that Sandy Koufax has been consistently sensational, Don Drysdale has been sporadically spectacular and Ron Perranoski has been absolutely superb.

But the key pitcher in the Los Angeles Dodgers' quest for their first National League pennant since 1959 is southpaw Johnny Podres, the elder statesman of the staff.

The author of this sage observation is no less an authority than Alvin Dark, manager of San Francisco's defending champion Giants who today found themselves looking up at the run-away Dodgers from a fourth-place position eight full games below.

It happened during the All-Star break. The Giants were then in second place, just three games behind the Dodgers.

"The National League race will go right down to the wire again unless Podres stays hot," Dark commented. "But if he keeps on pitching like he has lately it will be awfully tough to catch them."

In the past eight days, Podres has added three victories extending his winning streak to five in a row for an over-all 9-6 record.

His performance Thursday night in the Dodgers' 10-5 triumph over Pittsburgh was not as impeccable as were his other victories during the streak. But he allowed only one run until Roberto Clemente tagged him for a two-run homer in the seventh inning.

By that time the Dodgers had built up a 10-3 lead and virtually were assured of protecting their 6½-game margin over the runner-up Chicago Cubs, who earlier had beaten the Milwaukee Braves 3-2.

Cincinnati defeated St. Louis 6-3 to drop the third-place Cardinals a game behind the Cubs. San Francisco clung to its one-game edge over the fifth-place Reds by coming from behind to nip the New York Mets 6-5 and Philadelphia trounced Houston 5-1.

Maury Wills, back in his Most Valuable Player form of last year, drove in four runs with a single and double. The Dodgers hammered loser Earl Francis and four relievers for 14 hits but actually it was five unearned runs in a big sixth inning that proved to be the difference.

American Track Squad Confident

MOSCOW (AP) — With their bridges across the Moscow River burned behind them, the American track and field team advances on giant Lenin Stadium Saturday and Sunday aiming for its greatest victory in the series against the Soviet squad.

The coach, Payton Jordan of Stanford, and the athletes themselves, have systematically demolished any excuses they might need after the meet.

"No injuries, no ailments," said Jordan. "We are ready to roll. And this team is so powerful it scares me sometimes."

The athletes are oozing confidence.

Broad jumper Ralph Boston is an example. The Tennessee State long leaper flatly predicts that both he and Darrell Horn of Pilot Rock, Ore., will trim the Soviet world record holder Igor Terovanesyan.

Jim Beatty, the Los Angeles distance star who reinjured his right leg Wednesday and feared he couldn't run, appears ready in the 1,500.

"I didn't come all this way to watch," he said.

Officially the meets are segregated by sexes. The American men have always won, as have the Soviet girls.

Last year, at Palo Alto, the men's score was 128-107—highest U.S. point total to date—and the women's 66-41, with the Soviets ahead.

Monticello TD Record $26,691

MONTICELLO, July 18—The fabulous twin double was in the headlines again at Monticello Raceway tonight as driver Tommy Gay brought home a pair of longshots in the seventh and eighth races—final dashes in the TD pool—to clinch a new New York State high payoff of $26,691.70.

There was only one winner as tonight's gross TD pool amounted to $31,402.

Gay brought home 14 to 1 outsider Dixieland Chief ($30.80) in 2:06 in the seventh race and came back with 9 to 1 shot Jerry Aircraft ($21.80) in 2:04.2 in the eighth to erase last night's previous all-time high payoff of $25,527.20. Both horses reined by the 35-year-old driver are owned by Honesdale, Pa., sportsman William Abraham.

Minka ($13.20) captured the fifth dash, opener of the TD pool, while Record Malone ($10.60) took the sixth race.

Daily Double Payoff Is $172

MONTICELLO, July 18 — Gene Daisey, popular Frankford, Del., reinsman, drove five-year-old chestnut gelding Westbury to an easy near wire-to-wire victory in the second race tonight to clinch at $172.10 daily double return at Monticello Raceway.

The 9 to 1 outsider combined with Libby Dream, winner of the first dash, to pay off on the 7 and 2 combination.

The winner returned mutuels of $20.90, 8.20 and $4.30 while Ohio Direct got in for $6.40 and $4.10 returns. Favored 5 Point Star was $2.90 for show.

Libby Dream, driven by Jim Grundy, came on in the final quarter mile to capture the open-pace over Daisey's Extra Fare in 2:08 even.

Boros (69) Is In Good Position in PGA Play

DALLAS, Tex. (AP — No less an authority than Arnold Palmer thinks the early worm will get the birdie at the Dallas Athletic Club course today, which could mean lumps ahead for upstart Dick Hart and smooth sailing for Julius Boros in the second round of the Professional Golfers Association championship.

"Julius is in a perfect position with that 69," Palmer said after his opening round 74—marked by four three-putt greens — dropped the 4-1 favorite eight strokes behind the 27-year-old Hart's brilliant 66 Thursday.

"He was about the only late starter who survived those greens after they got all chopped up by the traffic," Palmer said. "He has a nice, early starting time for the second round and the greens ought to give him a much smoother ride."

Only Tony Lema, among those figured to stay in contention, also played well as a late starter in the huge, 167-player field that opened the 72-hole medal play scramble at the heat-seared Dallas Athletic Club course.

Tony shot a one-under-par 70 on the 7,046-yard, par 36-35—71 layout despite a double bogey five at the 16th.

Fires Rare Eagle

It was on the 16th, a 216-yard, par 3 test with a small pond snuggling up close to the green, that Hart made the most spectacular shot of a first round in which eagles were almost routine and birdies came by the carload on several holes.

Hart, an assistant pro at the Hinsdale, Ill., golf club, was three-under-par as he stood at the 16th. He pulled out a four-iron and one swing of the club later he was five-under. His beautifully hit shot struck a few feet short of the hole, and trickled straight into the cup for only the second hole-in-one in modern PGA history.

His fantastic 66, only one stroke off the course record, gave him a three-stroke lead over Boros, the 1963 National Open champion, Masters champion Jack Nicklaus, British Open champion Bob Charles, Mason Rudolph, and Shelley Mayfield, now a club pro at Dallas' Brook Hollow Country Club. Each of the five fired a 69 but all except Boros and Mayfield started play early in the dawn-to-dark firing.

Of those at 70, Earl Stewart, Doug Ford, and Bernie Haas of Pittsburgh had the benefit of the greens that weren't heavily tracked. Bruce Crampton, Lema and Chuck Congdon, 50, of Tacoma, got their 70s in the afternoon.

The leaders:

|---|---|---|---|
| Dick Hart | 34 | 32 | 66 |

Apache Defeats Seneca Club, 8-7

Ernie Cozza doubled in the winning run in the last of the sixth as Apache beat Seneca, 8-7, in a Metropolitan Knothole League game. Jim Murphy had knotted the count with a single.

Steve Foster hit his second home run of the season for the winners in the third inning. He was credited with the decision.

Mike Darwak doubled for the Apache while Foster finished with three safeties.

Line score:

BETWEEN YOU 'N' ME ... by TITURAY

The start of training for a new season finds the American Football League in a blustering, pugnacious mood. . . . "We took a lot of ridicule," says Ralph Wilson, owner of the Buffalo Bills, "and we're still taking it. But we're in business to stay. . . . And no one's coming in now to cut in on what we had to struggle for." . . .

Which is an indirect way of saying that the AFL has no expansion plans . . . when the current television contract runs out after the 1964 season (it now gives each team about $200,000), they anticipate a whopping new deal which, cut eight ways, will yield each club $400,000. . . .

RALPH WILSON

Four AFL teams have a strong shot at finishing in the black this year: Kansas City, with 18,000 season tickets in the till at a top of $7 (totaling more than $800,000); Houston, which was the only club to finish in the black a year ago and should make a bundle when the new domed stadium is completed; Boston, which moves to the 41,000 confines of Fenway Park, has enthusiastic clientele and a low budget operation (but also a stiffer rental), and Buffalo, which averaged 28,000 attendance last year with a losing club. . . .

Wilson expects 15,000 more seats in the Buffalo Stadium next year, raising capacity to 50,000. . . . He gave the city an ultimatum of "expand or you'll force us to move. . . . You can't make money in pro football unless you have a 50,000-capacity stadium." . . . He pointed out that Green Bay, with a championship team, completely sold out every Sunday, still netted only $250,000 profit. . . .

A note from Mike McGee fine offensive guard of the St. Louis Cardinals, telling us he's retiring from the game because "I slipped a cervical disk in preseason practice last summer, resulting in a damaged radial nerve. The injury was not correctly diagnosed until just before the final game of the season" . . . Mike accepted a position on the Duke coaching staff. . . .

Lee Grosscup has done the Jim Brosnan bit and is coming out with a book on his titillating experiences as a quarterback for the New York Titans last year. . . . a magazine has grabbed a chunk of it for pre-publication excerpts. . . .

One of the famous backs of professional football got through college taking such courses as camping, speech, etc. . . . So in speech class one day he was asked by the professor to deliver a studied disertation on any subject he chose to demonstrate that he had absorbed the lesson on elocution. . . . "Who" reacted the star. "Me? I'm not here to talk, man. I carry the ball." . . .

The biggest speciment coming into pro football this year is Jim Dunaway, Mississippi All-America tackle signed by the Buffalo Bills. . . . Although he tipped the scales at more than 300 pounds, Dunaway was the fastest lineman on the East squad in the All-America game. . . . when he was voted to the Newspaper Enterprise Assn. All-America team last fall, he was too big to get the Palm Beach sports jacket awarded for the honor. . . . The company said he'd have to wait until his pro travels took him to New York for a special fitting. . . .

Although most coaches are docking the three-unit system, John McKay of Southern California is sticking with it for the national champion Trojans.

Between you'n'me, the Kansas City Chiefs (nee Dallas Texans) are going to startle the natives with a new defensive alignment that finds just three linemen up front. . . . they've got too many talented big linebackers to allow them to stay idle. . . .

Mexico to Gain Stockyard Area In U. S. Agreement

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — With mingled emotions, residents on both sides of the border here learned Thursday that Mexico is going to recover El Paso's stockyards district in settlement of a century-old boundary dispute.

Under an agreement made public by presidents of both countries, the United States is pledged to return the 437-acre Chamizal strip. This is a sliver of land taken from Mexico in a shift of course by the flooding Rio Grande, which divides the two nations elsewhere.

Once a worthless stretch of brush, the Chamizal sector lies between the El Paso business district and the city of Juarez, across the river. Since the stream chose a new route in 1864 the area has acquired 3,750 residents, nearly all of Mexican descent, and 382 buildings.

Millions of eels swim along the Gulf Stream from their birthplace southwest of Bermuda to North America and Europe.

HOW TO LOOK AT ECLIPSE—A simple projector for observing the eclipse safely on Saturday afternoon, can be made with two pieces of white cardboard. A pinhole or pencil hole in the top cardboard serves to project and focus the image of the eclipse on the second cardboard. The size of the image can be changed by altering the distance between cardboards. A pair of binoculars may be used instead of the cardboard with the hole. Under no circumstances should anyone peer at the sun through the binoculars or the pinhole. Scientists warn that direct viewing of the eclipse can cause severe damage to the eyes.

Peace Talks Fail

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana (AP)—Peace talks between British Guiana's two major political parties broke down Thursday when the People's National Congress emergency restrictions imposed two months ago.

Prime Minister Cheddi Jagan's People's Progressive Party rejected the demand, contending the restrictions are necessary to maintain order in this British colony, where racial tension is still high.

Jap Ships Leave

TOKYO (AP) — For the first time in 26 years, a squadron of Japanese warships is en route to Europe on a good will and training cruise.

Unity Talks Start

ADDIS ABABA, Ethoipia (AP) —The committee set up to establish a provisional secretariat for the organization of African unity began a two-week closed session here Thursday night.

Creation of the secretariat to advance African unity was ordered at the Addis Ababa conference of independent African nations in May.

Gold Bar Missing

LONDON (AP)—A bar of pure gold disappeared Thursday night at London airport.

The bar, packed in a wooden box, vanished on a journey of a few hundred yards from the British European Airways warehouse to an airliner. The plane took off for Malta.

The gold was valued at $7,000.

Guards Foil Escape

BERLIN (AP) — East German border guards fired 15 shots Thursday night and apparently frustrated an attempt to escape to West Berlin.

West Berlin police said they could not see whether anyone was injured. It appeared, however, that several persons were arrested.

Heavy Advertising

During 1962, total advertising volume in the United States reached an all-time high of approximately $12.4 billion, with direct mail advertising accounting for the largest share of this total, or $2 billion, according to the Britannica Book of the Year.

Thinks Governors To Reject Rocky On Rights Issue

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The chairman of the National Governor's Conference predicts that Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York will be defeated in a bid for a showdown on the civil rights issue during the conference, which opens this weekend.

Albert D. Rossellini, the Democratic governor of Washington, said Thursday that Rockefeller would lead a hot floor fight for rights.

"But we'll be ready for anything that comes up," Rosellini said.

Rockefeller, who was considered a front-runner for the 1964 GOP presidential nomination, is believed by many to have lost some support following his remarriage and the gathering strength of the movement backing Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz.

Meanwhile, a Miami Negro said the civil rights issue will be kept in the spotlight with small, but carefully aimed racial demonstrations during the governor's conference.

Albert Moore, head of the Miami Congress of Racial Equality, said that the main target will be two staunch segregationists, Govs. Ross Barnett of Mississippi and George C. Wallace of Alabama.

Canadian Campsites

SASKATOON, Sask. (AP)—The Saskatchewan Travel Bureau has published a booklet giving locations of campsites in the province and listing facilities such as kitchens, fireplaces, water and playground equipment available at each site.

Warming Trend Due for Area After Monday

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Extended forecasts for New York State, prepared by the U.S. Weather Bureau for the period from 7 p.m. today to 7 p.m. Wednesday:

Eastern New York — Slightly cooler Sunday and Monday, warming trend for the remainder of the period. Temperatures will average around or just above seasonal levels. Scattered showers Saturday and again early next week. Rainfall amounts will continue to be spotty.

Western New York — Coooler weather over the weekend, followed by slow warming next week. Temperatures will average near normal. Showers tonight and Saturday and again toward the middle of next week will provide about one-half inch of moisture. highs, 78-83; nighttime lows, 58-62.

Redwood trees once grew in Alaska, China, France, Greenland, Montana, Siberia and Texas, according to fossil remains.
